

Remarks on Board of The Bark

Monday June the 12: 1843
These 24 hours commence with moderate breeze and pleasant weather from the NW course & by 1 at 4 PM took in sail & hove to on the larboard tack at 4 PM called all hands and made sail &c latter part passes with pleasant weather &c so ends these 24 hours

Tuesday June the 13 These 24 hours commence with light winds from the NW steering to the northward & eastward the watch employed in ship's duty &c at 2 PM raised a school of sperm whales off the lee bow at 3 PM loosed foretack and Capt Simonds strook and killed the whale then the larboard boat fastened and killed a nother & after a while the waste boat fastened to one and killed him at 6 o'clock had three whales stowed up with in the circuit of 5 miles &c at 8 PM took Capt Simonds whale along side and put the flock chane on and kept off fore the larboard boat whale & a very short time the chane parted and we lost the whale Mr. Russel waft his whale and came to the ship got on board at 11 and kept off fore the waste boat and having no light in the boat it was some time before they could find her at 1 PM took her whale along side and all hands went below excepting Capt Simonds at 5 commenced cutting in the whale at 9 finished cutting and made

President of Westport Capt Simons

sale and commenced working too the windward with the hope of finding the other tow whales &c these 24 hours end with fine weather and light winds from the NW Lat. 33.30 N Long 49.47 W

Wednesday June the 14 these 24 hours commence with light winds and pleasant weather from the NW all hands employed a marking on the whale &c middle and latter parts pass fresh winds and cloudy weather the watch employed in boiling out the oil &c so ends these 24 hours

The first Part of these 24 hours pass with fresh winds from the Eastward the ship under short sail the watch employed in boiling out the oil &c the middle parts pass with moderate breeze and pleasant weather from the same quarter at 1 PM finished boiling out the oil &c the latter parts pass with fine weather and moderate breeze from the northward and eastward steering various courses with the hope of finding the lost whales but saw nothing of them so ends these 24 hours

Friday June the 16: 1843 These 24 hours commence with fine weather & light breeze from the southward steering different courses the watch employed in washing &c the latter parts pass with moderate breeze accompanied with fine weather &c so ends