

Remarks on Board of The Bark

These 24 hours commence with light winds & pleasant weather from the S.W. middle & latter parts paper with moderate breeze and pleasant weather from the southward steering to the eastward one sail in site &c soendz these 24 hours

Sunday June 18. 1843

These 24 hours commence with fine weather and light breeze from the southward the boats off chasing sperm whales &c at 1 P.M. the boats came on board without out any whale & at 1 shortend sail &c the middle parts paper with moderate breeze a compend light squally of rain from the southward the ship heading to the westward under easy sail at 4 P.M. called all hands & made sail &c the latter parts paper with fresh winds and cloudy saw breacher to the windward supposed to be sperm whale &c soendz these 24 hours

Monday June 19. 1843

These 24 hours commence with fresh winds from the southward steering to the southward & eastward &c middle parts paper with moderate breeze a compend with cloudy weather the ship under easy sail heading S.W. the latter parts paper with light breeze and pleasant weather course to the watch employed in various jobs of ships duty &c soendz these 24 hours

President of West Port Capt. Simon

Tuesday June 20. 1843

These 24 hours commence with moderate breeze a compend with pleasant weather from the southward course to the watch employed in various jobs of ships duty at 1 P.M. shortend sail and hove the ship too on the starboard tack heading to S.E. the middle parts paper with moderate breeze and cloudy from the S.W. the ship heading to the southward & eastward at 4 P.M. called all hands and made sail at 6 haked ship heading W.S.W. at 7 saw a ship steering to the E the latter parts paper with fine weather the watch employed in various jobs of ships duty &c soendz these 24 hours

Wednesday June 21. 1843

The first part of these 24 hours paper with fresh and squally weather from the westward course S.E. at 5 P.M. clewed up the maintop galant sail and handed the main course at 7 o'clock took in sail with a fresh breeze a compend with light rain &c the middle parts paper with fresh winds and rain from the S.E. the ship laying to under easy sail heading S.W. the latter parts paper with moderate gale from the eastward a compend with cloudy weather & the ship laying too under a double reef main top sail and fore sail soendz these 24 hours soendz the 21. day from West Port &