

¹⁰
Remarks on Board of the Bark

Thursday June th 22 1843 These 24 hours commence with moderate gale and clear wether from the Eastward the ship laying too under shorted sail heading to the northward the latter parte paper with moderate breeze and pleasant wether from the Eastward steering to the Southward and East ward the watch employed in various jobs of shipz duty &c Saenz these 24 hours

Friday June th 23: 1843 These 24 hours commence with light wind and pleasant wether from E & S course S & S the watch employ ed in various jobs of shipz duty &c at 1 P.M. shortened sail and hauled on a wind heading S & by E middle parte paper with mild wether and light breeze from the S & S steering to the northward & westward &c the watch employed in various jobs of shipz duty &c Saenz these 24 hours

Saturday June th 24: 1843 These 24 hours commence with calm wether. the watch employed in various jobs of shipz duty &c middle parte paper with a light breeze and pleasant wether from the S & S course E & S the latter parte paper with light wind and pleasant wether from the S & S course S & S the watch employed in shipz duty Saenz

¹¹
President of Westport Capt Simonds

Sunday June th 25: 1843 All these 24 hours Paper with moderate breeze and pleasant wether from the W & W course S & S shortened sail once and made sail during the time Saenz these 24 hours

Monday June th 26: 1843 These 24 hours commence with fresh wind and cloudy from the S & W course S & S at 3 P.M. raised a school of Black fish board the boatz but they were going too quick fore us so the boatz came on board again and the ship was kept off to her course &c at 4 o'clock shorte ned sail and the ship was kept her course (the middle parte paper with moderate breeze acompanied with light and frequent squalls of rain &c later parte paper with fresh wind and rain from the westward course &c Saenz these 24 hours &c

Tuesday June th 27: 1843
These 24 hours commence with moderate breeze from the westward accompanied with light squalls of rain course S & S going with a main top gansail set the watch employed in various jobs of shipz duty &c at 11 P.M. shortened sail and hauled on a wind to the Northward under a double reefed main topsail and fore sail the middle and latter parte paper with moderate breeze and pleasant wether &c from the westward course &c Saenz these 24 hours