

Remarks on Board of The Bark

Saturday July 8th 1843

These 24 hours commence with light wind and cloudy from the northward course S.E. the watch employed in ship duty &c at 1 P.M. speak Brig Leoniduz of Fall River capt Baker 12 months out 230 bbls of sperm oil capt Baker came on board and spent the after noon &c at 1 went on board of his own vessel and halled to the westward home ward bound we shortened sail on board of the President and halled to the eastward &c the middle part of paper with light wind from the northward at 4 P.M. called all hands and made sail with a light breeze from the eastward steering to the southward &c the latter part of paper with calm weather the watch employed in repairing the fore sail &c ending these 24 hours.

Sunday July 9th 1843

These 24 hours commence with light breeze and clear weather from the southward and eastward steering to the northward and eastward the watch employed in repairing the fore sail &c at 6 P.M. finished the sail and bent it at 7 shortened sail &c the middle part of paper with light wind and squally of rain from the S.E. steering S.E. the latter part of paper with moderate breeze from the eastward steering to the southward and eastward &c ending these 24 hours.

President of West port Capt Simon

Monday July 10th 1843

These 24 hours commence with moderate breeze and clear weather from the eastward steering S.E. at 2 P.M. halled ship and headed to the northward & eastward at 7 shortened sail &c the middle part of paper with moderate breeze and cloudy from the S.E. &c at 4 P.M. called all hands and made sail with the wind from the S.E. &c the latter part of paper with mild weather the watch employed in various jobs of ship duty one sail in site &c ending these 24 hours.

Tuesday July 11th 1843

These 24 hours commence with fresh wind and cloudy from the S.E. steering S.E. the watch employed in various jobs of ship duty &c at 4 P.M. shortened sail &c the middle part of paper with moderate breeze and light squally of rain from the S.E. heading to the northward and eastward &c at 4 P.M. called all hands & made sail with a light breeze from the S.E. at 6 halled ship & stood to the southward & westward the latter part of paper with light wind from the S.E. the watch employed in ship duty &c one sail in site &c ending these 24 hours.

Wednesday July 12th

These 24 hours commence with light wind from the S.E. steering S.W. the watch employed in ship duty at 3 P.M. hoard the booby fore aft back but did not faving the middle &c the latter part of paper with pleasant weather & light wind from the eastward &c ending these 24 hours.