

18
Remarks on Board of The Bark

Thurs. day July th 13. 1843
These 24 hours commence with light windz & pleasant wether from the eastward course of the watch employed in various jobs of shipz duty. one sail in cite the middle parte paper with light breeze & clear wether. The latter parte paper with light windz & cloudy from the S. E. Stearing S. E. at 4 A. M. raised the Stand of Honor & cargo tow of the Western Hunt cargo layz in Lat. 39° 44' N. Long: 31° 07' W.
Honor layz in Lat. 39° 26' N. Long 31° 07' W. the Standz were 35 miles distant write a head stood in & at 11 A. M. raised tow sailz one was in recruiting the other off in the offen & so endz thez 24 hours

Friday July th 14. 1843
These 24 hours commence with light windz and calms from the S. E. Stearing in fore the land at 4 P. M. hoard down a boat & went on board of the bark Sarah of Nantapoisett she was 14 months out 500 bbls of oil. 20. of it was sperem & c. c.
the middle parte paper with light breeze
from the westward the ship heading off shore to the southward & westward & c.
the latter parte paper with moderate breeze & cloudy wether from the southward and eastward Stearing. to the southward and eastward one sail in cite. the watch employed in various jobs of shipz duty & c. c. the land in cite distant 30 miles at 11 A. M. saw a dead black fish board and took him along side he proved to be good fore nothing so we let him go: so endz thez 24 hours

19
President of Westport Capt Simonds

Saturday July th 15. 1843 These 24 hours commence with moderate windz from the eastward Stearing to the southward at 11 P. M. raised a large sperm whale off the shipz weather bow at 2 load the larboard and waste boats the waste boat fastened and got stove & capsized the larboard boat kept on after the whale & the starboard boat came and picked up the crew and boat and took them to the ship and then went off after the whale chased him 5 or 6 miles to the windward but could not get hoalt of him again while the boats were off after the waste whale a nother whale came up close to the ship put some canvas over the stove place of the waste boat and hoard and gave chase but could not get hoalt of him so at sundown the boats came on board with out any whale and ~~and~~ the crew with cast down lookz and here harterz to reflect on the misfortunez off the past day & c. the ship was kept off the way the whales were going with the hope of falling in with them in the morning & c. at 4 P. M. called all handz and called on a wind to the northward and eastward with the wind from the southward and eastward at 6 raised the whalez and at 8 hoard the larboard and starboard and gave them chase chased them 4 hours with out getting fast so at 12 A. M. the boats came on board and the ship was kept on after the whalez which was going to the westward so endz thez 24 hours