

<sup>26</sup>
Remarks on Board of The Bark

Friday July the 28. 1843

The first part of the 24 hours passage with calm weather &c all hands employed in stowing down the oil within a few miles of Pico at 4 P.M. a boat came off with a various assortment of trade which was bought for tobacco & the boat went ashore after wishing us a pleasant voyage and a pleasant one &c the middle part passage with light winds and pleasant weather from the westward steering to the eastward under short sail the latter part passage with moderate breeze accompanied with pleasant weather from the S.W. course &c bound for the Island of Tezarak. all hands busy employed stowing down the oil &c at 10 A.M. finished stowing down and washed off the deck sundry the 24 hours

Saturday July the 29

The first part of the 24 hours passage with moderate breeze and pleasant weather from the S.W. steering S.E. by E. at the watch employed putting up Dickhelz &c of the Islands in sight and one sail the middle part passage with fresh breeze and cloudy from the S.W. to the S.E. at 4 A.M. called hands and kept off S.E. run down along the northern shore of the Island of Tezarak at 8 spoke the Bark Sumner of Boston Capt Russell he had got nothing since we saw him last kept on down to the leeward of the Island and went on shore at the town of Pera and commenced trading sundry

<sup>27</sup>
President of West port & Capet simon

Sunday July the 30. 1843

The first part of the 24 hours passage with moderate breeze from the S.E. one boat crew on shore and the ship laying off on the town. at 11 P.M. Capt Simon came on board and the ship was kept off S.E. at this town we got 30 bushels of Potatoes and a few thousand of Onions &c the middle part passage with fresh wind accompanied with light squalls of rain &c the latter part passage with moderate breeze and pleasant weather from the S.W. course S.E. the Islands of St. Michael in sight and two sails the watch employed stowing away the vegetables &c sundry the 24 hours

Monday July the 31

The 24 hours commences with fresh winds and clear from the S.W. course S.E. at 4 P.M. raised the Island of St. Barry one point of the larboard bow distant 25 miles at 11 shortened sail and halled on a wind heading in shore the middle part passage with fresh winds and cloudy. the latter part passage with fresh winds from the S.W. course S.E. the watch employed in various jobs of ship duty &c at 10 A.M. lost sight of the Islands sundry the 24 hours