

Remarks on Board of The Bark

Thursday August the 10. 1843

The first part of the 24 hours commenced with light winds accompanied with pleasant weather from the Eastward steering too the Southward the watch employed in various jobs of ship's duty &c at 2 P.M. spoke Bark Ann Maria capt Carr of Fall River 10 bbls of oil 65 days out at 6 shortened sail with the wind from E.S.E. &c at 6 A.M. called all hands made sail at 7 tacked ship & stood to the northward with the wind from the Eastward the watch employed in various jobs of ship's duty &c at 11 A.M. the Ann Maria passed too the leeward steering to the Southward: So ends the 24 hours

Friday August the 11

The 24 hours commenced with moderate breeze & pleasant weather from the Eastward steering too the northward the watch employed in various jobs of ship's duty at 4 P.M. shortened sail. The middle part of paper moderate breeze and cloudy from the E at 6 A.M. called all hands & made sail & stood to the northward & Eastward with the wind from the E the latter part of paper with moderate breeze & pleasant weather from the Eastward the watch employed in various jobs of ship's duty at 11 A.M. tacked ship & stood too the Southward: So ends the 24 hours

Saturday August the 12. 1843

The 24 hours commenced with light winds & pleasant weather from the Eastward steering

President of West Port Capt Simonds

by & the watch employed in various jobs of ship's duty &c at 6 shortened sail the middle part of paper with light winds & cloudy from the Eastward the ship heading to the Southward: So ends the 24 hours

Sunday August the 13

The 24 hours commenced with fresh winds accompanied with light squalls of rain from the Eastward steering S by E at 6 P.M. shortened sail one sail in case &c the middle part of paper with fresh winds & cloudy accompanied with light squalls of rain at 6 A.M. called all hands & made sail with light winds accompanied with pleasant weather from the Eastward at 7 tacked ship & stood to the S.E. the latter part of paper with pleasant weather the watch employed in spreading &c: So ends the 24 hours

Monday August the 14

The first part of the 24 hours commenced with light winds & pleasant weather from the Eastward steering S by E at 7 P.M. shortened sail the middle part of paper with pleasant weather &c at 4 A.M. called all hands and made sail. The latter part of paper with fresh winds & pleasant weather from the S.E. course S.E. the watch employed in various jobs of ship's duty &c: So ends the 24 hours

Tuesday August the 15. 1843

These 24 hours commenced with strong winds and pleasant weather from