

Remarks on Board Bark

Wednesday May the 8th 1844
These 24 hours commence with strong winds accompanied with pleasant weather &c from the East course W by N the hands employed in various jobs of ship's duty &c at 1st took in sail and halled on a wind heading for the southward and Eastward at 5th A called all hands and made sail and kept off for the westward a gain &c the latter part paper with strong winds and fine weather from the W course W by N the hands employed in repairing the fore top sail and fore top gallant sail &c soundly

Thursday May the 9th 1844
The first part of these 24 hours paper with moderate breezes accompanied with pleasant weather from the Eastward course W by N the watch employed in ship's duty &c the Hands of Samacia in & a number of vessels &c at 4 P took whole watches a gain and kept sail on the ship &c the latter part paper with strong winds and clear weather course W by N the hands employed in various jobs of ship's duty &c soundly

Friday May the 10th 1844
The first part of these 24 hours paper strong winds accompanied with pleasant weather from the East course S by W the watch employed in various

President of Westport at sea &c

167

job's of ship's duty &c at 4 P the a large ship paper by steering to the westward the middle part strong winds and cloudy from the same quarter at 5 A raised the Hands of little camanay at 6 bearing handy in took in the fore top mast studding sail & halled on a wind off shore at 7 stood in shore again and a shore boat came a long side with a large Purthe and some shales &c we bought them with some provision &c the boat left for shore and the ship was kept off W by N for the Hands Grand camanay &c these 24 hours ends with pleasant weather

Saturday May the 11th 1844
These 24 hours commence with moderate breezes accompanied with very pleasant weather from the N by E course W by N the watch employed in various jobs of ship's duty &c at 5 P raised the Hands of Grand camanay bearing W distant 15 miles at 8 we wore a breast of the West end of the Hands and saw several lights on shore &c the middle part paper with light winds laying off and on the land at 1st A we wore a breast of gorge town we stood handy in and set the incine and a boat came too us from the shore we got the news of the morning and kept off S by W soundly these 24 hours