

233 ¹⁷⁴
Remarks on Board Bark

Their day May 30.. 1844
 The first part of these 24 hours passed with very light winds and clear weather from the S W steering on a wind too the S S E the watch employed in various jobs of ship duty &c the middle part passed with calm weather the latter part light breezes from the S E course S S E Lat at noon 40-3

Friday May the 31. 1864
Spuck badie

(The page contains faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.)