

New Zealand January 5th 1837

middle squally and rainy at 8 o'clock called allhands in order to take in sail, but thought later of it latter at 10 o'clock brought her to a reef main topsail soends

Thursday first part more moderate but rainy 19 made sail middle high winds at 3 o'clock called all hands and brought her down to a reef main topsail reef foresail and 3 stay Sails latter more moderate set double topsails Jib and spankers soends Sat 28 41

Long 176:01

Friday first part high winds and squally at night took in sail middle squally and rainy latter rather more moderate but heavy sea running employed in various jobs soends

Sat 29 50 Long 175:28

Saturday first part rather squally and high swell employed in ships duty middle and latter squally and rainy soends Sat 30 33

Sunday first part squally and rainy middle 22 and latter gentle winds and heavy rain soends Long 175:30

Monday first part gentle winds and heavy rain 23 saw the Atlantick of Capt. Thomas Russell middle rainy latter employed in various jobs soends

Tuesday first part light winds and rainy 24 middle and latter pleasant employed in various jobs soends Sat 28 57

Wednesday first part Long 177:37

25 Calm and pleasant employed in various jobs middle latter pleasant employed in adding on to the Coastmizen in order to make a spanker and other jobs soends Sat 29 37

Long

Monday first part pleasant employed in 6 Boiling and sent up the mizen top gal ant. mast middle and latter Boiling soends Sat 30:08 Long 175:00

Tuesday first part pleasant at 11 finished 7 Boiling and washed off middle rainy latter at work on the rigging and other jobs soends Sat 30:45

Wednesday first part pleasant employed 8 in Coopering and other jobs middle part rainy latter part pleasant after breakfast began to breeze the larboard side of the after hoard soends Sat

Thursday first part pleasant stored down 73 lb of Cit. saw a Brig middle latter finished clearing up and washed off at 9 o'clock raised Sunday Island soends Sat 30:12 Long 177:44

Friday first part high winds employed in 10 various jobs middle and latter high winds employed in various jobs soends

Sat 29:33 Long

Saturday first part high winds same as week 11 middle and latter high winds saw a Brig soends Sat 29:46 Long

Sunday first part high winds and heavy sea employed in wetting hoal middle and latter high winds and squally soends Sat 29:27 Long

Monday first part high winds and heavy swell under Coast reef topsails and reef foresail middle and latter high winds and rainy soends

Tuesday first part high winds and heavy rain middle and latter pleasant made all sail employed in various jobs soends

Sat 28:32 Long 175:06