

New Zealand Thursday 17th of 1837

latter light airs and pleasant employed in various jobs sends Sat 27 44

Friday first part pleasant Song 173 51

12 wind 28 middle latter employed in various jobs sends Sat 27 31 Song 175 58. Chor. Saver 473 21

Saturday first part pleasant wind 28 middle 13 latter not so convenient the fore till repaired and bent it again at 10 past 10 raised a large whale and stowed her in the hold.

Sunday first part light airs and pleasant at 10 past

14 12 lowered and stowed and he turned and when we saw him again he had about 500 fathoms of line and he ran from that time until dark when he was cut and let him go with one drudge and about 50 fathoms of line middle and latter high winds and squally sends

Monday 1st part high winds divided

15 up to the boats middle and latter more moderate employed in various jobs sends Sat 28 56 Song

Tuesday first part pleasant employed in 16 ships duty middle latter employed in ships duty Sat 29 30 Song 176 53

Wednesday first part light breeze 11 1/2

17 repaired the fore lifts and other jobs middle latter at 10 past 7 saw a whale and at 10 past 8 lowered and at 10 past 9 returned in a smart squall and at 10 lowered again and at 12 returned in a temperate and a smart breeze coast reefs sent

Thursday this day began pleasant made sail but 18 before 4 o'clock it came on to a gale of wind so that we lowered the sails to a reef fore sail and a 3 reef main top sail

May the 18th of 1837

Thursday middle squally latter set double reefs

18 betwixt the squalls but soon brought her to a 3 reef main top sail and reef fore sail sends wind to the S. by E.

Friday first part blowing a gale from

19 the S. by E. middle latter a gale of wind Steaming N by W Sat 28 37

Song 176 20

Saturday first part blowing a smart gale from 20 the S. by E. Steaming N by W middle latter at raised a whale at 8 lowered and at 12 returned with him sent

Sunday first part rather squally at 1 began 21 to cut and at 7 got the log and junk in and had the divies can back or else we would have had him all in before that time middle cloudy wind all round at 8 began to boil latter fine breeze 28 E sailed the Case sends

Sat 27 30 Song 176 20

Monday first part pleasant fine breeze 28

22 E employed in boiling middle and latter pleasant employed in boiling

Tuesday first Sat 28 34 Song

23 first part pleasant thing E at 2 line had boiling and then washed off middle latter employed in breaking out the bar side of the fore hole forward and Coopering send

Wednesday first part cloudy but slight breeze

24 repaired and stowed 25 lbs middle cloudy latter rather rainy but we finished

Coopering and got the rest of the oil down amounting to 112 lbs sends