

Remarks on Monday October the 13 Day
This 24 hours fine gale and pleasant at 8 p.m. spoke The ship masts of Nantucket Capt. May. He On board and spent the afternoon and 6 p.m. the ship went to Saint Anthony's Point Light from which I take my departure
He and I shortened sail occasionally so birds Sawings and lost 20 lat. 18° 15' long 25° 15'

Remarks on Tuesday October the 14 Day
This 24 hours fresh gale and variable, the wind
I shortened sail occasionally at 1 p.m. Capt.
May came on board at 6 p.m. we returned so
lat. 12° 48' long 24° 45'

Remarks on Wednesday October the 15 Day
This 24 hours light winds and variable with plenty of rain made and shortened sail Saw two ships ahead the one was the Watch employed at various points
lat. 11° 10' long 24° 36'

Remarks on Thursday October the 16 Day This 24 hours fine gale and pleasant weather at saw a brig to the leeward sailing 88 to the Windward a Steamer 33 and shortened sail occasionally so birds lat. 10° 54' long 23° 51'

Remarks on Friday October the 17 Day
This 24 hours light winds and pleasant weather a brig past us at the distance of 3

Remarks on Saturday October the 18 Day This 24 hours light winds and squally with some rain the Watch employed at various points saw a ship to the Windward at 6 p.m.
I saw a plenty of small fish schools

Remarks on Sunday October the 19 Day
This 24 hours light winds and variable with some rain saw some Winter Sports and some greenhouses and porpoises so birds
lat. 6° 33' long 23° 55'

Remarks on Monday October the 20 Day
This 24 hours light winds and variable with a plenty of rain squalls from the at 3 p.m. saw a school of black fish so birds but got none so birds
lat. 5° 42' long 23° 30'

Remarks on Tuesday October the 21 Day
This 24 hours light winds with a plenty of at 4 p.m. had a very heavy squall the flying gibbous and split sail at 2 p.m. spoke the ship North from north of the town of the battery at saw a brig a head so birds lat. 6° 12' long 24° 00'

Remarks on Wednesday October the 22 Day
This 24 hours light winds and variable with plenty of rain at 6 p.m. past a a Steamer N.W. saw porpoises birds made and shortened sail occasionally
lat. 5° 58' long 24° 21'