

Sunday 4 mo 23 1837 Off Shore

Light winds from the SE and clear standing to the Southward Latter part fresh Gales

Lat 55.1 S Long 104.25 W

Monday 24 Fresh Gales from the SE and clear and much and latter part standing to the N E So ends all well

Lat p. Obs 4.28. Long p. Obs 104.02

Tuesday 25 First part Light Air and pleasant Middle part Squally Shrivelled Sail

Latter part some rain standing to the N E

Wednesday 26 Lat Long

First part somewhat thick fresh Gales standing by the wind in different
Lat Long

Thursday 27 Strong trade pleasant weather with for further particulars enquire of J. S.

Lat Long

Friday 28 Light Air and clear spoke the Ship Pacific of New Bedford Capt Palmer hoisting a 30 lbly wheel making 100 barrels 6 mi out Lat Long

Saturday 29 fine breeze from E S E and clear a ship in sight to the Sward supposed to be the Pacific

Lat Long

Sunday 30 and last day of the mo commenced with fine weather and fresh Gales from the E S E and a sail standing to the North and East

Lat 4.50 S Long p. Obs

May 104.49 W

Monday 1 of April 1837 This 24 hours fine pleasant weather standing by the wind to N E by E

Lat Long p. Obs