

Ship Boat E and W bound off Thon

Thursday 11.

These 24 hours light air and calm At 1 P.M. I & W Boat started off for a chase of the Whales to the westward. the Larboard Boat bearing I & W but not in sight at 2 the Larboard Boat fastened and killed the whale or rather got him to spouting blood fastened from him and came on board for Capt at 4 the I & W Boat off for the whale again the I & W Boat took the whale to the ship. at 5 the Ward Boat struck the I & W Boat whale and the Larboard Boat struck a porpoise whale and secured at 7 took the whale to the ship at day light began to cut and finished by 10 A.M.

Larboard p. 06y 1. 17. S
Long by Chron 93. 57. West

Friday 12

These 24 hours light air from S.W. and pleasant stowing by the wind on different decks employed boiling

Date p. 06y. 15. South
Long by Chron 93. 56. West

Saturday 13

These 24 hours light air from S and calm at finishing boiling water put stowing down oil in the Main Hatchway on the I & W

Date p. 06y 10 00 For North
Long by Chron 93. 35 West

Sunday 14

First part light breeze from the west making to the I & W mess all morning stowing down oil

Date p. 06y 58 South
Long by Chron 94. 14. West

E and W bound off Thon 1889

Tuesday 15 of 4 mo 1889

These 24 hours light air from westward and pleasant finished stowing down in the Main Hatchway and broke out the Yonkoda mackerel stowing I & W. At 7 A.M. saw whales towards and took 2 on to the I & W. & on to the I & W Boat at 12 got them to the ship 26

Date p. 06y 1. 08 South
Long by Chron 94. 20 West

Wednesday 16

These 24 hours gentle breeze from I & W stowing to the I & W mess finished stowing down and cut in the whale mackerel put Chara away the Mackerel at 4 A.M. began to boil water put stowing I & W

Date p. 06y 2. 30 South
Long by Chron 95. 15 West

Thursday 17

These 24 hours light air from I & W and pleasant at 6 M.A.M. to the E & W water put finished boiling

No Observations

Friday 18

Commenced with gentle rain from E & W all hands washing ship & E mackerel put rainy water put light mackerel from E and Char stowing Northward

Date p. 06y 2. 12 South
Long by Chron 94. 45 West

Saturday 19

These 24 hours brisk breeze from E & W and pleasant at 7 A.M. M.A.M. to the South saw nothing

Date 1. 52. South
Long by Chron 94. 46 West