

Ship Robt. E. Amara bound in to Yreana

Friday 27 1859

first part of these 24 hours starting water out of lany-cast into shock mialah starting upon a mind to the E by S latter part finished and commenced breaking out to stow oil in the fore hold on the side about the hatchway so easy these 24 hours

Lath by Obg 3.23 A
Long by Chug 73.33 W

Saturday 28

Commenced with overcast weather and strong S E breeze stowing oil at 3 saw a ship in the N E starting eastward upon a mind mialah part the same latter part finished stowing oil washed off deck so easy

Lath by Obg
Long by Chug

Sunday these 24 hours commenced with strong gale at 3 PM saw a shoal of sperm whales lowered and fastened the 1st W B Starboard. Boat crew waste boat saved a whale mialah part lay by the whale latter part cut him in and began to boil for oil

2.11 Lath by Obg 4.05
Long by Chug 80.05

Monday 30 first part saw whales at 3 PM struck 3 boats and saved three mialah part lying by the whales and boiling at daylight commenced cutting finished by 10 AM and began to boil so easy

Lath by Obg 3.15
Long by Chug 79

Amara (Mowla) Master 1859

Tuesday 1 of July 1859

first part of these 24 hours thick weather and strong wind blowing clear the deck at 12 midnight packed to the N E by E 3/4 East latter part the same so easy

Lath by Obg 2.45 North
Long by Chug 89.48

Wednesday 2

Strong wind from the N by E starting to the E by South blowing finished at 8 PM off boats washed mialah latter part washed ship so

Lath by Obg 2.45
Long by Chug 87.55

Thursday 3

These 24 hours commenced with strong gale from S E and overcast weather starting eastward nothing going on quite unmasked the mialah part the same latter part clear weather nothing in sight

Lath by Obg 2.31 North
Long by Chug 85.51

Friday 4 of July 1859 being the 62 year of Independence

John Hancock

Commenced with strong wind and clear weather starting eastward upon a mind at sunset shortened sail and started at N E under single head of sail mialah part the same latter part started east and so easy

Lath by Obg 3.51
Long by Chug 84.14