

Ship Robt Emaras North of the Line

Wednesday 13 of May 1840

Fresh winds from the North and cloudy cruising by the wind under easy sail

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 1.44 N

Long by Chng 94.45 W

Thursday 14 Fresh winds from S E and cloudy cruising by the wind at 10 AM saw whale towards and struck out to each boat at Meridian. Boats still fast

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 1.44 N

Long by Chng 94.40 W

Friday 15 Strong breeze and cloudy the mast boat struck another whale at 4 PM cut from him and came on board. at 6 PM had 3 whales along side. Day by them all night at daylight began to cut finished by 10 AM made sail to the Eastward

20 ~~Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 2.20 N~~

25 ~~Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 95.17 W~~

PP PP Saturday 16 Strong winds and cloudy staring by the wind under easy sail. Employed boiling

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 2.21 N

Long by Chng 95.50 W

Sunday 17 Light winds and pleasant cruising by the wind At 11 PM finished boiling. Latter part washed ship and made all sail

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 2.15 N

Long by Chng 95.27 W

Monday 18 Light S E trades and clear at 1 PM saw Smalls. Latter part stowing oil in the lower hold. Apr

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 1.50 N

Long by Chng 95.30 W

Tuesday 19 Fresh S E winds and pleasant stowing oil in the upper hold

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 1.24 N

Long by Chng 94.50 W

Emara Woodland Master 1840

Wednesday 20 of May 1840

Light winds and squally
stowed off to the N N W stowing oil

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 2.51 N

Long by Chng 94.10 W

Thursday 21 Strong winds and cloudy staring by the wind on different backs finished stowing oil and washed ship. Latter part men and the fore topsail late

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 1.12 N

Long by Chng 94.50 W

Friday 22 First of these 24 hours strong S E breeze and cloudy employed mending the fore & miz
topgall sails

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 1.12 N

Long by Chng 95.50 W

Saturday 23 Strong winds from the S E and cloudy staring by the wind to the N E saw bunching latter part stowing to the Southward

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 1.42 N

Long by Chng 95.40 W

Sunday 24 Light winds and pleasant staring by the wind to the S E. Latter part Capefire & mormans Solanas in sight bearing E by N dist 30 m.

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 1.15 N

Long by Chng 92.15 W

Monday 25 Light winds and pleasant staring by the wind up to 8 PM at 1 PM mormans Solas bore N by W dist 24 ms at 6 PM made the North Head of Albemarle dist 50 miles at 8 AM Roanoke Rock bore S E
and 20 miles

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 0.23 N

Long by Chng —

Tuesday 26 Light winds and calm at daylight North Head bore E dist 3 miles spoke the Eliza Adams wholly of Fairhaven 1310

Lat $\frac{1}{2}$ Obg 0.50 N

Long by Chng 91.34 W