

Abstract of a Whaling Voyage in Monday June 12th

Strong winds from
S. ship steering different courses Milford Haven in sight at dusk shorten sail. so ends

Tuesday, June 13th

Moderate winds from
S. S. S.W. with cloudy weather. ship on different tacks shorten sail at dusk Land in sight Milford Haven. D. is 15 to 40 m luring E. so ends

Wednesday, June 14th

Strong winds from
the S. and squally
Ship on different tacks Milford Haven in sight
at dusk took in sail
so ends.

Thursday, June 15th

Strong winds from
S. ship steering different
courses, at dusk shorten sail
so ends

Ship, Robert Edwards, M.B.

Friday June 16th

Moderate gales from
S. S.W. ship heading S.E. from look N.E. in sight. one sail in sight
to leeward so ends.

Sat. at. Noon 43-36

Saturday, June 17th

Moderate gales from
S. S.W. ship on different tacks Milford Haven. Baring. S.E. Sat. 43-32
so ends

Sunday June 18th

Moderate winds from S. S.W. ship on different tacks Milford Haven. S.E. D. is 15 to 40 m at dusk shorten sail
so ends

Monday June 19th

Light and baffling winds ship heading different courses saw grass was, at dusk shorten sail
so ends