

From Providence R^r for Havana.

and then S W 19 miles. Thence S W 20 miles & S W 17 miles and came off the Bank, at 9 AM. Latter part fine breeze and pleasant weather. Lost sight of the Brig astern at 10 AM.

Latitude N. 24° 28' Longitude 79° 06' W.

Friday February 3rd 1832. Commenced fresh breeze & pleasant weather. At 5 PM saw the Keys on Salt Key Banks. Through the Night fresh breeze & all sail set to the best advantage.

At 6 AM saw the Pan of Matanzas bearing S.E. At 11 AM saw the Moss Castle. At noon I and by Nautical computation and continued the civil day. At 1 PM anchored inside the Moss in the harbor of Havana. At 2 PM went on shore with Capt. Bowen. Saw my Sister Sarah at the house of Mr. Cleveland where she resides, & delivered her letters.

At Sundown went on board in company of Capt. Bowen. Ends fresh breeze and passing squally clouds.

Saturday February 4th At 11:30 AM the crew commenced hauling the Brig up the Harbor. At 7 AM hauled to the Quay. Very warm weather through the day. Saw Mr. Wade, Mr. Jose Fernandez, and Mr. Hogan. Nothing remarkable to notice more than that the whole Island fleet of Kops Potatoes & Onions have all arrived together.

Sunday Feb 5th A fair pleasant day & warm weather. Took a walk in the evening with Capt. Cobb & Granger and came down to the Brig at 8 PM.

Monday Feb 6th Warm pleasant weather. The Brig began to discharge. In the morning went to Mr. Wade's room in the house of Mr. W. Afternoon came down to Regla's and saw Mrs. Perry the woman I formerly boarded with. Her son walked with me as far as Dr. Vell's Hospital where I saw Capt. Work of Brig Agenoria of Providence who lies dangerously sick. He requested me to tell his Mate Mr. Hunt to have his dirty clothes sent to Mrs. Perry's & to go to Havana & get what clean ones he had there. Went on board his Brig when I arrived back which was Sunset & passed the night, as it was too late to go up to the Havana.

At Havana / Island of Cuba,

Tuesday February 7th 1832. In the morning went to Havana in Brig Agenoria's boat and went to see about Capt. Work's clothes but the washer where he directed me said there was none at that place. At the request of Capt. Work in the afternoon I hired a Volant in the Regla having come down there with Mr. Perry and Mr. Elde and went again to see him and found him very low and much worse than yesterday. Returned to the Regla and lodged at Mrs. Perry's.

Wednesday Feb 8th Went to the Havana in the morning with Mr. Perry. In the evening went on board Brig Mechanic of Portland and passed it in company of Capt. Gray and several other Masters of Vessels. The day has been fair & warm. The Enterprise discharging her rotten Potatoes & Onions.

Thursday Feb 9th The day fair and pleasant. At Havana visiting at several places. Passed the evening on board Brig Mechanic of Portland and the Capt. being unwell passed the night on board with him as he wished to wait to the Regla in the morning and wished my assistance.

Friday Feb 10th At daylight the Mechanic hauled from the Quay and I went in her to the West Regla. Capt. Gray being so much unwell, at his request in the afternoon I went ashore with him, and took a Volant and attended him to the Hospital. Saw there, Capt. Work, whose case I think very doubtful as he is much worse than he was the day before yesterday. Left Capt. Gray there and returned to the Regla and stopped and lodged at Mrs. Perry's. Warm weather.

Saturday Feb 11th At the Regla visiting &c. Capt. Bowen and Mr. Hunt, Mate of the Brig Agenoria went over to the Hospital to see Capt. Work, and they think he will not live through the night. The Agenoria ready for sea.

Sunday Feb 12th Extreme warm weather. At Mrs. Perry's at the Regla. At 3 PM went on board the Enterprise & brought my dirty clothes ashore. Took a walk in the afternoon but coming Showers of rain & at 10 PM Capt. Work died.
