

Aparao Bay New Zealand January 1843
Thursday 23 These 24 hours calm with a light breeze from the South and fine weather much employed on painting ships and mending sitting gill beam yokes Middle part light breeze and fine weather later part continued the same so ended

Monday
January 24 These 24 hours calm with a light
breeze from the South and pleasant weather one watch on shore on liberty at 9 AM one fine man of war went to see Middle Part fine weather one watch calm employed on mending of the wood also water later part light rain so ended

Tuesday
January 25 These 24 hours calm with a light breeze from the S.W. and hazy weather one watch on shore and one watch on ships duty at 8 PM heavy showers of rain Middle Part heavy gale from the S.W. later part ended with fresh gale

Wednesday
January 26 These 24 hours calm with a light gale from the S.W. and fine weather still lying in the Bay one watch on liberty and the other on ships duty Middle Part calm later part heavy gale from the S.E. and squally
so ended

New Zealand 1843
Thursday 24 These 24 hours calm with a light January 26 Gale from the S.E. heavy squalls still lying in the Bay at 6 PM let go the other Anchor Middle part heavy gale at 10 AM moderate at 6 AM gusty drift on water later part fine Weather so ended

Friday
January 27 These 24 hours calm with a light breeze from the S.E. and fine Weather still lying in the Bay all hands employed on ships duty stowing of and getting ready for sea. Discharge to three one by the name of George Pelley and one by the name of Lucy at 6 PM Coated the small Anchor Middle Part Calm later part light breeze from the S.E. ships all ready for sea so

Saturday
January 28 These 24 hours calm with a light breeze from the S.E. ships still lying in the Bay waiting for wind and when Middle part light breeze from the S.E. later part fresh breeze so ended

Sunday
January 29 These 24 hours calm with a light breeze from the S.E. and cloudy Weather still lying in the Bay Waiting for a fair wind ship three men one man boat stowed