

Tuesday
Jan the 4

Wednesday
Jan the 5

No obs to day

Thursday
Jan the 6

No obs to day

Friday
Jan the 7

No obs to day

Ship Aster Master M. H. H.
These 24 hours Comm. with light
Breeze from the ESE and foggy
All hands employed on Boiling Crapping down at 6 PM saw what seem'd to be a Boat struck at 10 PM
Took the whole to the Ship Shipped Part Calm at 6 AM began cutting at 12 Noon finished to end
These 24 hours Comm. with light
Breeze from the Eastward and foggy
All the work employed on Boiling
Middle part thick weather at 6 AM Break out the fore hole began stowing down our ship in light later
Part thick weather to end
These 24 hours Comm. with light Breeze from the NE and thick with fog at 2 PM finished stowing down at 5 PM Spent the ship perhaps Sub of Wren with 90 of oil 10 PM
Middle part thick foggy weather
At 6 AM Stowed down 20 lbs of oil
Later part Irish gales from the North
These 24 hours Comm. with Irish gales from the North and foggy
Weather Ship under Clouds Thick Mist and fine sail all the Thick Employed on Boiling at 12
Midnight were ship to the westward
Later part Irish gales and thick
Weather to end

Ship
Saturday
Jan the 8

Sunday
Jan the 9

No obs to day
Long 16 25 30 E

Monday
Jan the 10

No obs to day

Tuesday
Jan the 11

Left 80.00.00
Long 16 40 00 E

Ship Hercules of Baltimore M. H. H.
These 24 hours Comm. with light
gales from the North and foggy
Ship under Clouds Thick Mist
Mist and fine sail all the work
Employed on Boiling at 6 PM
Could down Middle part Irish gales at 6 AM Break out the fore hole began stowing down later
Part foggy weather to end
These 24 hours Comm. with light
Breeze from the NE and thick weather
All hands employed on stowing down at 4 PM finished stowing of oil Subtle Thick Tapsails were Ship to the West Middle part Thick weather at 5 AM saw what seem'd three Boats with our Camp
Later part foggy to end
These 24 hours Comm. with light
gales from the Eastward and foggy Ship under Clouds Thick Tapsails storing at 2 PM
At 6 PM Shorten sail Middle part
Light breeze at 4 AM foggy at 6 AM det.
Subtle Thick Tapsails at 11 AM saw one
Whale later part foggy to end
These 24 hours Comm. with light breeze from the Eastward and foggy weather Ship under all sail at one PM saw Whale Load three Boats with our Camp Middle part Calm as seen made all sail later part Calm to end