This day while repairing the waste boat the Carpenter caused me to split two new sheels and I had to take them out again and then nearly spoiled the third one. and while I was a working at him for his mischief the Capt came upon deck & blew me up before the people for meddling at the Carpenter, now I know not what to do but to let the people do as they like so long as they don't come a foul of me. yours S. J. Spencer shipmate but as I do not what I saw am
