

Bark Sappho of New Bedford Edward S. Coffin Master Wednesday July 15th Commences with strong breezes steering ing S by W this part in play on the river 5 Pm Saw a sail of the le quarter this part in the gulf middle part Wind fresh from the S W steering S by W later part in play in painting and varnishing the gib and fly get firm Lat 33 46 Long 71 32

Thursday July 16th Commences with brisk breezes from the S W steering S by W in play in small Gobs 6 Pm but the Sappho led on the S S boats line ready for sounding marked to 20 fathoms middle and later part light breezes and a thick fog in play in heaving the log works over board and cleaning up Lat 40 12 Long

Friday July 17th Commences with a thick fog Wind S W steering North this part in play in sounding down the cutting gear 7 Pm 35 fathoms of Water left to of shore with the lead yards square middle and later part thick fog lying with the lead yards a track 7 A m 32 fathoms this part foggy Lat 41 38 Long 71 36

Saturday July 18th Commences with light breezes from the South 1 Pm spoke the British Ship Exmouth of Liverpool with a load of evergreens bound to New York 6 Pm spoke a Schooner 8 Pm have the log and run 24 fathoms this part steering S by E

Absent
38 months