

Sun 31 st
H.	R.	Course	Remarks
2			The weather continues calm.
4			with plenty of rain
6
8
10
12
2			Several sails in sight
4
6
8
10
12
Lat		No Lon
5-27 N.

Mon Nov. 1 st
H.	R.	Course	Remarks
2			These twenty four hours were
4			fine with a very light breeze
6			part of the time
8
10			Crew employed on general work
12			Seven different sails in sight
Lat		No Lon
5-7 N

Tues 2 ^d
H.	R.	Course	Remarks
2			The first part of these twenty four
4			hours were calm, in the latter
6			part we had a very light breeze
8			from the southward.
10	3	S. W
12	3
2	3
4	3		Plenty of other vessels in sight
6	3
8	3
10	3
12	4
Lat		Lon
4-40 N.		25-6 W.

Wed 3 ^d
H.	R.	Course	Remarks
2	8	S. E. & S.	The whole of these twenty four
4	8		hours were cloudy with a strong
6	8	S. W. by W.	Southerly wind
8	8
10	6		Several sails in sight all
12	6		beating to windward
2	6	S. W.
4	6
6	6
8	8	S. W. by S.
10	8	S. W.
12	8
Lat		Lon
3-58 N.		25-37-30 W

Thurs 4 th
H.	R.	Course	Remarks
2	8	S. W. by W.	The weather during these
4	8		twenty four hours was fair,
6	10	"	with a good breeze
8	10	"
10	10	"
12	10	"	Several sails in sight
2	10	"
4	10	"
6	10	"
8	10	"
10	10	"
12	10	"
Lat		Lon
2-46 N.		26-57-30 W

Fri 5 th
H.	R.	Course	Remarks
2	10	S. W. by W.	The whole of these twenty four hours
4	10		were fair, with a moderate breeze.
6	10		Spliced the foremast shroud on the
8	10		main top, which had strangled
10	8		sighted St. Pauls Rocks at 11 o'clock
12	8		P. M. bearing S. W. In the morning
2	8		we lowered the boat I went fishing,
4	8		but there were so many sharks,
6	10		it was hard work to save a fish
8	10		so we got very few.
10	10
12	10
Lat		Lon
1-22 N.		28-50 1/2 W	