

April
 Sat. 28th
 Commencing with moderate breezes from the westward Middle part equally, at 2 P.M. made Maldonado's light house & later West, during sunset with a westerly wind, vessel going to leeward during the night at 7 A.M. squared away steering N. E. by N. & N. E.
 So ends this day with several sail in sight
 Haul down all sail but gaff top sail
 35-5 54-55
 Sun. 29th
 Commencing fair with a fine breeze from W. In the Middle part the wind hauled to N. W. & howling more to the Northward in the latter part
 All sail on but gaff top sail
 At 8 A.M. steering N. E. by N. & N. E. until 10 A.M. when the wind hooked her of a point
 34-4 53-54
 At 8 A.M. steering N. E. by N. & N. E. until 10 A.M. when the wind hooked her of a point
 32-44 51-57
 Sat 30th
 Commencing fair with a light wind gradually hauling Eastward steering N. E. by N.
 During the Middle part the wind shifting back & forth, vessel heading from N. E. to E & back
 In the latter part the wind increased & hauling Westward, steering N. E. by N.
 Reduced sail to fore sail & jib
 Two Steamers passed us in the night and so ends this day.
 32-5 51-55
 Sun. 1st May
 Commencing fair with a fine breeze from W. In the Middle part the wind hauled to N. W. & howling more to the Northward in the latter part
 All sail on but gaff top sail
 At 8 A.M. steering N. E. by N. & N. E. until 10 A.M. when the wind hooked her of a point
 32-44 51-57

91
 May
 Sun 1st
 Commencing with a fresh breeze from W. In the Middle part it began to moderate & during the latter part it was light
 Set Main Sail & Flying Jib & steering N. E. by N.
 Set two Steamers took one of them & held Man of War.
 4 P.M.
 31-24 49-25
 8 A.M.
 29-51 48-06
 Broke out some material to repair the stern boat with & commenced on a new boat sail
 Mon 2nd
 Commencing fair with a very light westerly wind, toward sun down the wind hauled to the Northward latter part wind W.
 All sail on but gaff top sail
 Steering N. E.
 Capt at work repairing boat
 Crew making span yard
 4 P.M.
 29-35 47-36
 8 A.M.
 29-00 46-23
 Saw a Brig going to the Southward
 Tues 3rd
 Commencing fair with the hauling Eastward Middle & latter part wind N. E.
 Light sail furled & steering E. by N.
 Crew employed in general work & Capt working on the boat, took the boat inboard.
 Saw a Brk. during the night
 4 P.M.
 28-52 45-14