

Lat. N. Lon. W.

Sun 22nd

The whole of these twenty four hours were fair with light Easterly Wind

0-12 34-18 $\frac{1}{2}$

Crewed the Equator about 1 P.M.

Staring N. by W.

Lat. N. Lon. W.

Mon 23rd

Commencing fair with light Easterly Wind, towards Sun down it began to look squally but passed off again in a few hours with a little Rain.

Middle & latter parts fair with light N. E. Trade Wind

Bent the Fore Gaff Top Sail & set it

Staring N. by W.

1-35 35-8 $\frac{1}{4}$

Crew employed on general work.

Tues 24th

Commencing fair with light Easterly Wind. The Middle & latter part the breeze freshened some with light Rain Squalls during the rest of the twenty four hours.

All sail on & Staring N. by W.

3-66 35-53 $\frac{1}{4}$

The Crew employed on general work.

We were looking around but got no chance to get one

Lat. N. Lon. W.

Wed 25th

During the whole of these twenty four hours we had an unsteady Easterly Wind with Rain Squalls & some heavier lightning in the N. E. During the night

Dead Reckoning

All sail on & Staring N. by W.

5-10 36-49

Crew employed on general work

Thurs 26th

Commencing with a light Easterly Wind & Rain

During the middle part the breeze freshened & by all appearance it is the N. E. Trade. Latter part fair with fresh N. E. breeze

Clowed up Fore & Main Gaff Top Sail

Staring N. by W.

6-12 37-32 $\frac{1}{4}$

Crew employed on general work

Fri 27th

The whole of these twenty four hours were fair, with strong N. E. Trade

Shoover under Main Sail Fore Sail & Flying Jib

Staring N. by W.

9-01 37-14 $\frac{1}{4}$

Crew employed on general work