

Lat. N. Lon. W.

Mon 4th

The whole of these twenty four hours were fair, with light Easterly Winds.

Cruising through the day & Laying to at night.

Found an old barrel of S. Palm Oil, from around which we caught a good mess of fish.

30-35 32-45
Schooner Carrie D. Knowles still keeping us company.

Tues 5th

Continuing fair with a light Wind from Eastward.

Cruising through the Day & Laying to at night under short sail.

29-35 31-48 1/2

Wed. 6th

The whole of these twenty four hours were fair, with light Easterly Winds.

Cruising through the Day & Laying to at night.

We found a Cask of Oil that was leaking, so we pumped the Oil into another Cask.

29-3 31-19 1/2

Lat. N. Lon. W.

Thurs 7th

The whole of these twenty four hours were fair, with light Easterly Winds.

29-24 32-22 1/2

Cruising through the Day & Laying to at night.

Fri 8th

Commencing fair with light Easterly Winds during the first & Middle parts. In the last part the Wind backed more to the Southward with a Hazy looking sky.

30-10 33-31

Cruising to the Southward & Westward & Laying to at night.

Sat. 9th

Commencing clear with a cloudy sky & light Southerly Winds, during the Night there were a few Showers. The latter part was fair with the Wind still from the Southward.

29-34 34-32 1/2

Cruising to the Westward & Laying to at night.