

Lat. N. Lon. W.

Sun. 10th

The whole of these twenty four hours were fair, with light land-breeze.

Travelling through the day & laying to at night.

We found some spars parted together, from appearance they were part of a raft.

31-12 53-26 1/2

Lat

arrived the Brig Eunice A. Adams.

Mon. 11th

The whole of these twenty four hours were fair, with light Southerly breezes during the first & middle part, in the latter part the Wind backed Westward & freshened a little.

Travelling days & laying to at night.

31-5 54-21 1/2 We gained the Brig Eunice A. Adams & another Sail.

Tues. 12th

The whole of these twenty four hours were fair, with fresh S.W. breezes.

Working & keep in sight of the Adams, we had to reduce sail & fore sail & jib.

31-00 54-53 1/2 We see another Brig. standing to the Southward.

Lat. N. Lon. W.

Wed. 13th

The whole of these twenty four hours were fair, with the Wind gradually backing more Westward & freshening.

Schooner under close Reef. Main Sail fore sail & jib & Masting N. N. W.

31-22 55-10 a Brig. Adams in sight also see a Steamer & another Sail.

Thurs. 14th

Commencing with a cloudy sky during the night & squally during the middle & latter part, with fresh S.W. breeze.

31-48 55-26 1/2 Reduced sail to close Reef. See another Sail.

Fri. 15th

The whole of these twenty four hours were more or less squally with Westerly Winds.

Schooner under close Reef.

31-34 54-22 1/2 Broke out Snow