

Lying at Anchor at Lohaina

693 Sunday November 5th 1854

Pleasant incident In the forenoon all went on shore to meeting that desired to do so that was about 46 of us Had a good meeting and Lyons and myself partook of the Lords supper with about a dozen of the church on shore. The house was crowded for the first time since we have been here. In the afternoon had a meeting on board of the Saratoga. Had 6 Capt and about 15 strangers. We expected to have some ladies from the shore but a captain had just who had lost his wife during his absence and the ladies stopped to administer a few words of consolation. The text may be found in the 1st chapter of Isaiah 2 verses. Concluded the day with our little prayer meeting in the fore

Monday November 6th

The Starboard watch on liberty while I had liberty to go on board of the ship. William of Tirbury to stow casks so instead of spending a dollar a have earned 3. He is stop taking in freight of oil for home sold a bbl of oil

Tuesday November 7th

All hands on board today repairing sails. Mr. Bakeman and myself sent a box of things on board of the Olympia, who is expected to sail for home today but had not gone yet. Spent the evening on board of the Florida with Jackson Allen

Wednesday November 8th

All hands repairing sails. The Olympia left for home this morning. Took 25 bbl of Irish potatoes from the schooner Warwick. The ship Rambler came on with several others today and we had a visit from the Rambler crew in the evening. Sold a bbl of oil

Thursday November 9th

Repairing sails. Took off a few bbl of sweet potatoes a hundred squashes and a few cabbages. I spent the day on shore and went to my friends at home and enjoyed myself well. Spent the evening on board the Rambler

Lying at Anchor at Lohaina

695 Friday November 10th 1854

The Starboard watch on liberty while I have been to work on board the ship Warren, sharking old casks. The boat returned at dark. Arrived of 3 liberty men Jones, Jam and Abait. Boatsteerer. Our mate came off from Winton but he had too many bricks in his hat. He stayed a few minutes in the evening and incident his advice again. He brought a bottle of sweetened water to treat all hands aft. He supposed it to be wine. Took 2 bbl of wood

Saturday November 11th

The Starboard watch on liberty. Mr. Bakeman with them for the first day. Carpenter and myself sleeping. Took off 100 water matts & brushes. Bakeman sold 25 baby heads of cabbages. We hear that Abait is on the feet. Spent the evening on board the Speedwell

Sunday November 12th

The wind has blown from the north so strong today it has been very bad. Navigating about the harbor with a boat. We barely made out to go to the shore to meeting. It was a funeral over the body of a stranger who came here for his health but had got a burial ground. The text may be found in the 23 of John 23 and 24 verses. There was to be a mass on board the Eliza (Master) but it was too rough

Monday November 13th

All hands on board doing nothing excepting myself and Mr. Bakeman. He has been on shore and I have been on board the Warren sharking and hooping meat. The wind still blowing strong from the north with one light squall of of small rain

Tuesday November 14th

The wind has left us and the sun heats down in the old fashion way. The Capt came on board today and introduced our new mate to the crew of the Winton. Our new second mate brought his things on board and will stop with us till he get down the Pittman to sail repaired it and left it again. The steamer arrives from Honolulu during the night

694
695
696
697
Golda bbl of oil

698
699
700
701
702
The steamer arrives from Honolulu during the night