Saturday August 1st
 Week after week passes away and nothing done to shorten the voyage or get ready for home What would our friends at home say if they knew that the season had passed to the 1st of August and no whales. Bad to think of.
 Weather moderate again Wind S.E. steering by the wind to the East. Not clear yet saw porpoises at 6.0. 1.5. W realized a benefit this time. Lett. 57. 90. W.

Wednesday August 8th P.M. Rain again. A gale the first half with some rain. The last half light wind and more rain so we have not seen the effects that we expected.
Training every week for the show case.
I have got them together and begun to put quite encouraged. This young ladies of
