Sunday July 9 1854 on board Ship Sea of Warden making the best of our way in to one of the bowhead bays on the northern coast of Asia at 6 o'clock P.M. lowered 4 boats to tow whips The captain found fault with my managing the boat I am aware his retort which put him in a great passion he called me a long side and put me off duty he says for the season he has the power to do as he pleases I must be content But there is one thing certain I will be the mans dog star slave As long as I am treated as man should be I will do all in my power to give satisfaction

Monday 10 the first part of this day has been it long one to me confined to my room for so high an offence grieves me sure it is the first time since I blundered to a ship But I must make the best of it had scrape at 10 o'clock at 10 let go hedges under in 4 fathoms water at 11 o'clock at 11 laid down and slept till 4 P.M. at 3 o'clock P.M. sent 4 boats down the bay whaling the for ward whist boat caught a small one

Tuesday 11 commenced with thick fog at 8 o'clock took our whale along side the second mate of barke funny stand here he could find his own way in the fog at 3 P.M. the boats left to go up the bay the captain cut the whale with the ship keepers

Wednesday 12 went to my duty caught a whale and brought it to the ship so much for the first day on duty And I think the captain had lost more by the operation than I have
