Lohaina: Maui I.: Islands.
 Oct 27 1854
 Mr. William Abbott
 Sir: It is with pleasure I inform <sup>you</sup> that I inform you that I saw the fair young last time and had a good little on board of my ship to take dinner with me he was much pleased with the letters you sent him he was well satisfied with his situation at that time I saw him again last September his ship has more shooting and he expressed some dissatisfaction I gave you advice and advice to stay by his ship until he could get some honorable discharge and I hope he will do so if I could get him from his ship in a way that would be honorable to us I would do so with pleasure but it cannot be done he has pledged his word to perform the voyage and when you write him encourage him to do so his prospect looks much better than others did this first voyage I was young 4 years and got nothing but ship has taken good barrels her first year and has a chance to do better her next season I wish you had tried and come with me my ship has been very fortunate the last letter has made over 20 dollars a month I have made over 12 dollars a day since I left Oahu if we are fortunate next season I shall make a good voyage and then I shall say good by to salt water I will trouble them no more: My Aunt writes the young family are all well and I hope this scroll will find them the same she writes she pleases about there new home that their crops looks well and about good I hope they will end the means to live more comfort able for years to come than they have for years past they write Mr. J. V. W. was not very honorable about some small matters but I care nothing about a few tens he has hurt himself more than he has me I paid him for what he said he had put up so that is no fault on my part
