

Barque Sea Breeze of New Bedford in the

Thursday the 1st of September 1870at 4 PM
Bar 30.05

The first part of the 24 hours light air & calm, ship under short sail employed in heaving out with a thick fog light air from length of champagne. The middle & latter part light wind from S.W. & S. by S. the ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air.

at 10 PM
Bar 30.05
at 10 PM
Bar 30.05

Friday the 2nd of September 1870

at 4 PM
Bar 30.19
on a large
slump
and
at 10 PM
Bar 30.19

The first part of these 24 hours light air from S.W. & S. by S. the ship under short sail heaving to the westward at 4 PM, passed a lot of fish and the sea was all game down and birds fair to have some fine in the air. A small whale that we picked up yesterday fed so we caught to get another one finished sailing at 10 AM while it was the middle & latter part fresh wind from S.W. & S. by S. the ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air. The ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air.

Saturday the 3rd of September 1870

at 4 PM
Bar 30.19
on a large
slump
and
at 10 PM
Bar 30.19

The first part of these 24 hours strong winds from S.W. & S. by S. the ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air. The ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air.

Sunday the 4th of September 1870

at 4 PM
Bar 30.19
on a large
slump
and
at 10 PM
Bar 30.19

The first part of these 24 hours strong winds from S.W. & S. by S. the ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air. The ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air.

Monday the 5th of September 1870

at 4 PM
Bar 30.19
on a large
slump
and
at 10 PM
Bar 30.19

The first part of these 24 hours light pleasant wind from S.W. & S. by S. the ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air. The ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air.

Arctic Ocean on a Whaling Cruise of the Gray Matter 1870

with a heavy shower of rain from S.W. & S. by S. the ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air. The ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air.

Tuesday the 6th of September 1870

at 4 PM
Bar 30.19
on a large
slump
and
at 10 PM
Bar 30.19

The first part of these 24 hours light air from S.W. & S. by S. the ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air. The ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air.

Wednesday the 7th of September 1870

at 4 PM
Bar 30.19
on a large
slump
and
at 10 PM
Bar 30.19

The first part of these 24 hours light air from S.W. & S. by S. the ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air. The ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air.

Thursday the 8th of September 1870

at 4 PM
Bar 30.19
on a large
slump
and
at 10 PM
Bar 30.19

The first part of these 24 hours strong winds from S.W. & S. by S. the ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air. The ship under short sail lying back most of the time simply in waiting out air.