

26

Remarks on board Bk. A. R. Tucker

Days
and from
Barrel 74Saturday July 11thLat
Long

This day comes in with strong breezes from N.W. under sheet sail on apparent tracks lying of the ice and Resolution is observing N.W. heavy beds of ice covering part of the straits no chance of getting in yet saw Cape Labrador depends this day with moderate sail from West lying off & on the ice

Sunday July 12th

Resolution

Br
27 3/4

This day more moderate with fine weather from N.W. lying off & on the ice Resolution hearing N.W. 15 miles & Cape Labrador bearing S.W. had several light snow squalls opening in the ice to get into the straits so ended the day

Monday July 13th

Resolution

Br
27 3/4

Light & fresh breezes from N.W. under sheet sail lying off & on the ice weather pleasant Resolution is observing about North by compass started 6 Bbls of Bread & ended the day lying to

27

Went into the ice

Of New Bedford. L. Fisher Master

Tuesday July 14thLat
Long

This day comes in with light breezes from N.W. under all sheet working into the ice weather overcast and some foggy with light rain Resolution in sight at 12 M at 9 A.M. until 1 P.M. ship in the ice not moveable from 2 P.M. working on sheet sails in the ice latter part in the ice light air and foggy

Wednesday July 15th

For part of this day ice landed with light breezes from S.W. and fog at 10 A.M. let up saw Resolution is bearing S.E. by compass 15 miles off Bk. working through thick ice into the westward at 4 P.M. got out of the thick ice into a small space of clear water dying aback so ended the day

