

Laying at Bunbury
Monday Feb 11th 1861

Begins with light winds and fine weather further the sails and a Breeze in for some potatoes & Beef & get the Letter of Middle & I part the same steaming on the oil &c

Tuesday 12th

Begins with a fresh gale from the sea, gradually the ship Paridhute came in with some provisions & the oil house C. E. 100, & being a Portugee had his work badly done here to the doctor and he it being from latter part got a barrel of water & stowed it down

Wednesday 13th

Begins with strong breeze from S. & S.W. & Monday took the draft ashore to fill up of a draft of water & stowed it down &c

Thursday 14th

Light winds and fine weather took the draft ashore to fill. M & I part the same got off a draft of water & stowed part of it below painting ship &c

Friday 15th

Where 24 hours Begins with light winds and fine weather & the ship got the potatoes & the man who sold, the match ashore on Liberty

Saturday 16th

Commences with light winds and fine weather painting ship &c, M & I part the same the match ashore

Sunday 17th

Begins with light winds and fine weather the Park Elther Paridhute came in today M & I part the same part of the men ashore as a man

Monday 18th

Begins with light winds and fine weather M & I part strong gale from north & sea, a man & the match ashore on Liberty

Laying at Bunbury
Tuesday Feb 19th

Begins with strong breeze from S. & S.W. & parting clouds, got up some more M & I part the same getting of wood - the match ashore on Liberty

Wednesday 20th

Fresh breeze and fine weather getting of potatoes M & I part the same the match ashore on Liberty

Thursday 21st

Moderate breeze & fine weather getting of wood & rather down the foremast rigging, M & I part the same the match ashore on Liberty landing down the head stage,

Friday 22nd

Begins with light winds and fine weather taking down - the Berke Lagoon & Mary & I part the same the match ashore on Liberty getting of wood

Saturday 23rd

Begins with light winds and fine weather got up some potatoes &c, M & I part the same

Sunday 24th

Light winds and fine weather M & I part the same latter part fresh gale from the North & clear latter part

Monday 25th

Begins with a fresh breeze from the North & clear M & I part moderate breeze, & fine weather took the draft ashore to fill

Tuesday 26th

Begins with light winds and fine weather showing up & getting ready for sea M & I part the same got up the water & stowed it below

Wednesday 27th

Begins with light winds and fine weather already further M & I part the same the sailing driven with for a short time ashore