

Tuesday 24 of June 1862
First Port fire by f-the South the ship was long the sea & the Eastward at 11 P.M. came to anchor in Plumber Bay in 21 fathoms water in company with 2 more ships

Like Port lying at anchor in the Bay in company with 5 ships

Wednesday 25
Still lying at anchor in the Bay with 5 ships at 28
Barrels of Potatoes from Ship Coa Buz to Ship Coa at the East Point Landed these for

Thursday 26
all the 24 hours lying at anchors in Plumber Bay blowing strong from the East the Irish howler began out with the in the

Friday 27
First Port employed in getting matters about 2 for Latter Port still the same
got 100 bbls marts
L.E

Saturday 28
Still lying at anchor in Plumber Bay in company with 9 ships got 1 Reg of Port marts from from Ship Coa Buz to 150 bbls Potatoes from Ship Coa Buz
to Coa

Sunday 29
Still lying in Plumber Bay at anchors the ship navy coasted anchor (first) fog with sun all hands ashore at present
L.E

Monday June 30th 1862
First Port still lying in the the ship lying at anchor in Plumber Bay in company with 10 more ships & Buz
Latter Port still the same company in various jobs but still

Tuesday 1st 1862
First Port still lying at from the 6 Coa the ship still lying at anchors in Plumber Bay
Latter Port still the same

Wednesday 2
First Port still lying at anchors saw 2 ships going to the East and nothing doing
Latter Port still the same
L.E

Thursday 3
a gale from the South the ship still lying at anchor in Plumber Bay in company with 6 ships
Latter Port still the same

Friday 4
First Port light breeze
all Port of the Company took an anchor and drifted out of the Bay in company with Ship Coa Buz the ship with the end of the L.E saw a Buz going to the East
Latter Port still the same
up for Indian Port
L.E

Saturday 5
First Port fire by f- the sea with thick heavy weather at 2 P.M. by Back of Indian Port
Latter Port still the same
L.E