

Saturday July 6 1862 First shot taken with the the mid from the C. G. with the Dyer 800 yds at a distance of 1000 yds. The shot in comp. with the John Howard & Leabell. Middle shot on the 1st shot the 3 for Little Pat killed a sp. of the 22. fathoms the said ship in sight & in sight

Sunday 7
 First shot begun with light breeze from the East and the fog is lifted now that could see about 4 to 6 more ship at 12. Mr. As L. Best going back 3 knots at 6 P.M. rose ship to the S.E. at 20 fathoms

Little Pat calm and a thick fog at 9 Little Pat landed 20 fathoms off the South Head of St. Lawrence Bay being 10 fathoms but 10 miles come to anchor in comp.
 with the said ships

Monday 8
 First Pat shot with light with light are from the South the ship lying at anchor at 4 P.M. killed a sp. of the ship began to the East and a ship at the shot at anchor. Middle Pat the mid from the with heavy rain the said ship fell 60 fathoms Middle & Little Pat. Blowing a gale from the S.E. with heavy rain the ship still lying at anchor

Tuesday 9 at 4. All the ships were lying at anchor with fog with rain Little Pat still lying at anchor with fog with rain

Wednesday July 10 on board Dyer B. 12 First shot taken with light breeze with the ship with light at 6.30. Little Pat killed a sp. of the 22.
 17.00 and in for the Bay the Dyer at 6.30

Thursday 11
 First shot taken with light breeze through the Dyer at 8 P.M. calm and anchor in 14 fathoms water of the Dyer being shot at 20. miles of the Dyer said ship Cape Henry. East of the Dyer by the Dyer at 8. Little Pat Little Pat the ship from the Dyer at 8. Little Pat the anchor in the Dyer & Dyer head

Friday 12
 First Pat lying at anchor in the mouth of St. Bay in comp. with the Dyer & the Dyer. Little Pat the Dyer at it more made

Little Pat light and still lying in the Bay at anchor

Saturday 13
 First Pat light and calm for the Dyer to the Dyer the ship still lying at anchor in comp. with the Dyer. Little Pat the Dyer Cai Pak El. Dyer. Little Pat

Little Pat still lying at anchor calm and thick fog in Dyer's job but ship