

- 11th Fine weather. Fresh breeze. Course N.N.W. Lat. 16.57 N, long. 162.6. A partial eclipse of the moon about midnight.
- 12th Fine weather. Fresh breeze. Course N. by E. Lat. 19.32 N, long. 161.11 E.
- 13th Fresh breeze. Course N. by E. Lat. 22.01 N, long. 160.37 E.
- 14th Fresh breeze. Course N. by W. Lat. 24.42 N, long. 160.07 E.
- 15th Fresh breeze. Course N. by W. Lat. 27.05 N, long. 160.03 E. Raised whales about 5 P.M. on our lee bow. Ran off for them and hauled aback till sunset, but saw no more of them. Shortened sail, set boat's crew watches, and hauled on the wind for a cruise in the Japan seas.
- 16th Light wind. N. by E. Unbent the mainsail and went at work on it. Lat. 29.20 N. Saw fin backs. Very heavy dew fall here nights, nearly wetting us through. Weather very cool to us who have been for the last two months under a boiling sun in the tropics. ~~Saw black fish~~
- 17th Fine weather. Light wind. Lat. 30.53 N, long. 160.42 E. Mending the mainsail. Saw fin backs and black fish.
- 18th Fine weather - light wind. Broke out the fore and ^{after} ~~shift~~ ed bulk to get the ship in trim, as some fast clippers are supposed to be in this vicinity. Finished mending the mainsail, and bent it. Lat. 32.01 N, long. 161.39 E. - 19th
- 19th Fine weather - light wind. Close hauled, heading N.E. Set up head rigging.
- 20th Fine weather - light wind. Close hauled, heading N.E. by E. Tacked at noon heading E. Lat. 32.53 N. For the last three days we have been on an allowance of one pound and a half of meat per day, and there is no more angry words, for the present, between the captain and the crew.
- 21st Light weather - Close hauled, heading E. by W. Lat. 32.17 N, long. 161.43 E.
- 22d Fine weather - light wind. Close hauled heading N.E. & W. Tacked at noon = N.E. Lat. 30.58 N, long. 161.29 E.
- 23d Fine weather - light wind. Close hauled heading E. Mended fore topgallant sail. Lat. 30.30 N, long. 165.21 E.
- 24th Fine weather - light wind. Course E. & N.E. Mending old main topsail. Lat. 31.21 N, long. 164.45 E.
- 25th Light wind - fine weather. Mending main topsail. Made jibs for the boats. S. & by S. Squared the yards - N.N.E. Braced around N.W. Calm - very warm.
- 26th Light air. S. W. by W. Braced around - N.E. and N.N.E. Broke out water. Sent down new main topsail and bent the old one. Calm.
- 27th Light wind - N.N.E. Squared yards, set all sail. Lat. 32.46 N, long. 165.40 E. Seven P.M. wore ship - Close hauled, S. by E.
- 28th Light wind - N.E. Sunday. Beautiful weather.