

December 27. 1856. North Atlantic making out the main hatch. with and latter part much the same. Lat 21.49 Long 29.23

Lat 21.46 N Long 29.23 W
These twenty four hours commenced with a light breeze from the north part but all sail set sailing on the wind from the southward and eastward latter part much the same nothing worthy of notice through the remainder of this day. Lat 19.52. Long 30.20

Long 30.20 W
Mon 28th these twenty four hours commenced with a moderate breeze employed through the day in working in the rigging sent latter part sent up the main royal mast middle and latter part strong breeze sailing our course. latter part much the same. Lat 11.29. Long 30.14

Long 30.14 W
Tue 29th these twenty four hours commenced with a light breeze employed through the day in working in the rigging sent up the main royal yard we have sent latter part the sails sailing two points free much part strong. latter part moderate Lat 10.24. Long 29.05 W

Mon 30th these twenty four hours commenced with a strong breeze employed through the day in shipping out the fly jib hoist, and sent the fly jib sent up the main topgallant studding sail hoists and set the sail. signalled a bark sailing the same was that we are I. latter part much the same. Lat 11.51 N Long 28.10

Long 28.10 W
The January 1st 1857. these twenty four 119

The January 1st 1857. North Atlantic hours commenced with a strong breeze, the fore part sailing I. H. employed through the day in working in the rigging sent up the cutting jib, all sail set sailing I. and sail in sight of the weather beam. middle and latter part much the same. Lat 8.30 N Long 26.50 W

Lat 8.30 N Long 26.50 W
These twenty four hours commenced with a light breeze all sail set sailing South. The sails have been well to the Eastward. employed through the day working in the rigging sent down the tops from the fore and main topsail yards and fixed the masts an abundance of planking moved the ship, one sail in sight of the weather middle and latter part much the same
Lat 11.29 N Long 30.14 W

Lat 11.29 N Long 30.14 W
Sat 3rd these twenty four hours commenced with a light breeze with some squalls of wind and rain. have lost the track west
from the southward and eastward nothing worthy notice through these twenty four hours. Lat 4.40 N Long 27.40 W

Long 27.40 W
Sun 4th these twenty four hours commenced with a light breeze all sail set sailing on the wind. heading to the southward and eastward. no man below deck with the power, agree with middle and latter part much the strong breeze. Lat 3.20 N Long 27.35 W

Lat 3.20 N Long 27.35 W
Mon 5th these twenty four hours commenced with a strong breeze for part of the day which blat of one here at 1 PM. but the topgallant wind from the southward and eastward latter part much the same. finished repairing