

Ship Clematis New London

Saturday March 20

Begins with calm weather and pleasant were employed in duties of the ship last part fresh breeze from West steering N by E

Lat 29° 00 Long 141° 22
At 4 o'clock 1 P.M.

Sunday March 21

Begins with strong breeze from West steering N by E at 1 P.M. wind hauled N by W in a heavy squall took in fore and main topsails Double reef the main top off E at 8 to clear a lot of clouds at 8 stood East till 8 A.M. hauled up N by E last part clear gales with a rough sea set Double reef topsails

Lat 29° 22 Long 144° 05

Monday March 22

Begins with fresh gales from N by E steering N by E with Double reef topsails set saw a ship heading the same way middle calm last part fresh breeze from South

Lat 30° 08 Long 145° 00

Tuesday March 23

Came with strong breeze from South at 4 P.M.
Spoke ship Salligum New Bedford his longitude was 60 miles out of the way at 6 have to on the starboard tack heading N by E midnight blow breeze at 5 A.M. wind hauled West in a heavy rain squall last part fresh gales and clear weather

Lat 31° 01 Long 146° 08

Wednesday March 24

Begins with fresh gales from West with a rough sea steering N by E at night have to heading N by W moderate breeze in heavy rain in the forenoon at 4 A.M. blow on very heavy in squalls sea moderate have double

Bound for Arctic Ocean

the little the end of the little broke off turned the boats up flaked the little up so it would stand at 4 help off boat under a close reef main topsail and foresail blows on very heavy with high sea at mid and Island and a reef for reaching here one Point forward the aft back here East 20 miles back saw help and land here Ends

Lat 31° 24 Long 147° 30

Thursday March 25

Begins with heavy gales from West N by W with a high sea shudding under a close reef main topsail and foresail at night weather more moderate attended with rain sea more regular middle and last part moderate gales with a heavy swell on employed in making a letter

Lat 31° 53 Long 149° 50

Friday March 26

moderate gales from West with a heavy
swell on employed in making a letter out of a plank at night have to heading to the starboard last part calm with a heavy swell on

Lat 31° 10 Long 150° 00

Saturday March 27

Begins with calm weather employed working on the cabin last part fresh gales from South trying have to waiting for weather to put in a new letter Ends to observe

Sunday March 28

Came with fresh gales from South attended with rain at night wind hauled west cleared off at 10 P.M. calm filled in a new letter last part light air from South Ends

Lat 31° 25 Long 150° 40