

Ship's Logbook Clement Hammond

Hour	Course	Wind	Remarks
2 3	S 45 E	S 45 E	These 24 hours commence with fine weather from the Southward and Westward and cloudy, S. P. M. equally in topgallant sails. Middle part strong wind from S. W. in top sails. Latter part moderate made sail, steering on a wind to Southward and Eastward. Looked out after hold for the sails, to work up into small ones. All well except the Portuguese boy, rainy, - employ'd in small jobs -
4 3			Var 1st Mt 1 Mo. 13 days out
6 3			Lat 6° 34' N
8 3			Observation
10 3			Remarks September 11 th 1833 Tuesday
12 3			These 24 hours commence with cloudy weather and moderate winds from S. W. all sail set steering to Southward and Eastward. Middle part cloudy. Latter part moderate breeze and flying clouds, all sail set to but advantage, employ'd fitting a new boat, - and other necessary jobs -
2 3			All well except the Portuguese boy -
4 3			Var 1st Mt 1 Mo. 14 days out
6 3			Lat 6° 34' N
8 3			Remarks September 12 th 1833 Wednesday
10 3			These 24 hours commence with most craft winds from S. W. and flying clouds, all sail set on a wind to the Southward, nothing in sight. Middle part moderate and cloudy. Latter part moderate and pleasant all sail set, watch employ'd in sundry jobs. All well except the Portuguese boy.
12 3			Var 1st Mt 1 Mo. 15 days out
2 3			Lat 5° 36' N
4 3			Remarks September 13 th 1833 Thursday
6 3			These 24 hours commence with most craft winds from S. W. and cloudy all sail set steering on a wind to Southward and Eastward. Middle part moderate and cloudy. Latter part pleasant weather and fine breeze heading to South East. Saw a sail on our starboard bow, watch employ'd in sundry jobs, all well except the boy.
8 3			Var 1st Mt 1 Mo. 16 days out
10 3			Lat 4° 40' N
12 3

Master, bound on a Whaling Voyage to the South Atlantic

Hour	Course	Wind	Remarks
2 3	S 45 E	S 45 E	These 24 hours commence with moderate winds from Southward and Westward and equally, at P. M. strong winds, took in topgallant sails. Middle part strong winds and cloudy. Latter part much the same with a considerable head but sea. -
4 3			single reef fore and main top sails, all well except the Portuguese boy. -
6 3			1 Mo. 14 days out
8 3			Var 1st Mt
10 3			Lat 6° 34' N
12 3			Observation
2 3			Remarks September 14 th 1833 Saturday
4 3			These 24 hours commence with strong winds, cloudy and head but sea, under single reef fore and main top sails, steering S. E. on a wind. Middle part cloudy and moderate breeze from S. E. -
6 3			Latter part moderate winds and pleasant, made all sail, saw a number of Finbacks, also a large ship on our starboard quarter, steering to the Southward and Eastward. -
8 3			Var 1st Mt 1 Mo. 16 days out Lat 3° 31' N
10 3			Remarks September 15 th 1833 Sunday
12 3			These 24 hours commence with most craft winds from S. E. all sail set steering S. E. a large ship on our weather bow steering S. E. -
2 3			Middle part, cloudy and moderate. Latter part very pleasant and moderate, all sail set on a wind heading S. E. wind S. E. spoke ship Recluse, took 15 days from New York bound to St. Salvador, supplied him with wood. All well. Lat 3° 06' N
4 3			Var 1st Mt 1 Mo. 19 days out
6 3			Lat 3° 06' N
8 3			Remarks September 16 th 1833 Monday
10 3			These 24 hours commence with pleasant weather and moderate winds from S. E. heading on a wind to the East. Ship Recluse in company, a number of Finbacks and porpoises in sight. Caught two dolphins. Middle part cloudy. Latter part flying clouds and strong wind from the Northward, all sail set, at P. M. tacked ship to the Westward, ship Recluse to leeward of us.
12 3			1 Mo. 20 days out
2 3			Var 1st Mt
4 3			Lat 2° 36' N
6 3			Finbacks in sight