

Ship Schooners Logbook Clement Hammond

Hour	Course	Wind	Remarks
24	SW by S	SE by S	Remarks, September 25, 1833, Wednesday
4			These 24 hours commence with a moderate breeze from the South and East
6			all sail set on a wind
8			Middle part thick and squally
10			weather took in fore & main topgall
12			ant sail, flying jib
2			Latter part pleasant and fine breeze
4			all sail set, spoke and boarded ship
6			Equator, Coffin of and from Shetland
8			ford bound to Pacific Ocean Whaling
10			30th. Spinn. Pel. on board. Lat 16° 16' S
12			Var 1 pt W 1 Mo. 29 days out
24	SE	SE	Remarks, September 26, 1833, Thursday
4			These 24 hours commence with a good breeze from Southward and East
6			at which lost sight of Ship Equator
8			Middle part squally weather
10			Latter part the same all sail set
12			on a wind steering S.W. nothing
2			in sight, water employed in small
4			jobs. All well on board
6			Var 1 pt West Lat 15° 20' S
8			2 Mo. Out
10			Remarks, September 27, 1833, Friday
12			These 24 hours commence with strong
2			trade winds, all sail set on a wind
4			took in topgallantails at 8 PM
6			Middle part squally, took 1 reef
8			in main topgall
10			Latter part more moderate and
12			flying clouds set all sail, nothing
2			in sight. All well on board
4			water employed in small jobs
6			Var 1 pt W Lat 14° 02' S
8			2 Mo. 1 day out
10			Remarks, September 28, 1833, Saturday
12			These 24 hours commence with strong
2			winds from S.E. and squally
4			5 P.M. took in topgallantails
6			Middle part squally, some rain
8			Latter part strong breeze and
10			cloudy, winds S.E. steering S.W.
12			11 A.M. single reef'd the topgall
2			water employed in small jobs
4			Var 1 pt W No Obi to depend on
6			2 Mo. 2 days out

Hour	Course	Wind	Remarks
24	SW by S	SE by S	Remarks, September 25, 1833, Wednesday
4			These 24 hours commence with a moderate breeze from the South and East
6			all sail set on a wind
8			Middle part thick and squally
10			weather took in fore & main topgall
12			ant sail, flying jib
2			Latter part pleasant and fine breeze
4			all sail set, spoke and boarded ship
6			Equator, Coffin of and from Shetland
8			ford bound to Pacific Ocean Whaling
10			30th. Spinn. Pel. on board. Lat 16° 16' S
12			Var 1 pt W 1 Mo. 29 days out
24	SE	SE	Remarks, September 26, 1833, Thursday
4			These 24 hours commence with a good breeze from Southward and East
6			at which lost sight of Ship Equator
8			Middle part squally weather
10			Latter part the same all sail set
12			on a wind steering S.W. nothing
2			in sight, water employed in small
4			jobs. All well on board
6			Var 1 pt West Lat 15° 20' S
8			2 Mo. Out
10			Remarks, September 27, 1833, Friday
12			These 24 hours commence with strong
2			trade winds, all sail set on a wind
4			took in topgallantails at 8 PM
6			Middle part squally, took 1 reef
8			in main topgall
10			Latter part more moderate and
12			flying clouds set all sail, nothing
2			in sight. All well on board
4			water employed in small jobs
6			Var 1 pt W Lat 14° 02' S
8			2 Mo. 1 day out
10			Remarks, September 28, 1833, Saturday
12			These 24 hours commence with strong
2			winds from S.E. and squally
4			5 P.M. took in topgallantails
6			Middle part squally, some rain
8			Latter part strong breeze and
10			cloudy, winds S.E. steering S.W.
12			11 A.M. single reef'd the topgall
2			water employed in small jobs
4			Var 1 pt W No Obi to depend on
6			2 Mo. 2 days out
24	SW by S	SE by S	Remarks, September 25, 1833, Wednesday
4			These 24 hours commence with a moderate breeze from the South and East
6			all sail set on a wind
8			Middle part thick and squally
10			weather took in fore & main topgall
12			ant sail, flying jib
2			Latter part pleasant and fine breeze
4			all sail set, spoke and boarded ship
6			Equator, Coffin of and from Shetland
8			ford bound to Pacific Ocean Whaling
10			30th. Spinn. Pel. on board. Lat 16° 16' S
12			Var 1 pt W 1 Mo. 29 days out
24	SE	SE	Remarks, September 26, 1833, Thursday
4			These 24 hours commence with a good breeze from Southward and East
6			at which lost sight of Ship Equator
8			Middle part squally weather
10			Latter part the same all sail set
12			on a wind steering S.W. nothing
2			in sight, water employed in small
4			jobs. All well on board
6			Var 1 pt West Lat 15° 20' S
8			2 Mo. Out
10			Remarks, September 27, 1833, Friday
12			These 24 hours commence with strong
2			trade winds, all sail set on a wind
4			took in topgallantails at 8 PM
6			Middle part squally, took 1 reef
8			in main topgall
10			Latter part more moderate and
12			flying clouds set all sail, nothing
2			in sight. All well on board
4			water employed in small jobs
6			Var 1 pt W Lat 14° 02' S
8			2 Mo. 1 day out
10			Remarks, September 28, 1833, Saturday
12			These 24 hours commence with strong
2			winds from S.E. and squally
4			5 P.M. took in topgallantails
6			Middle part squally, some rain
8			Latter part strong breeze and
10			cloudy, winds S.E. steering S.W.
12			11 A.M. single reef'd the topgall
2			water employed in small jobs
4			Var 1 pt W No Obi to depend on
6			2 Mo. 2 days out
24	SW by S	SE by S	Remarks, September 25, 1833, Wednesday
4			These 24 hours commence with a moderate breeze from the South and East
6			all sail set on a wind
8			Middle part thick and squally
10			weather took in fore & main topgall
12			ant sail, flying jib
2			Latter part pleasant and fine breeze
4			all sail set, spoke and boarded ship
6			Equator, Coffin of and from Shetland
8			ford bound to Pacific Ocean Whaling
10			30th. Spinn. Pel. on board. Lat 16° 16' S
12			Var 1 pt W 1 Mo. 29 days out
24	SE	SE	Remarks, September 26, 1833, Thursday
4			These 24 hours commence with a good breeze from Southward and East
6			at which lost sight of Ship Equator
8			Middle part squally weather
10			Latter part the same all sail set
12			on a wind steering S.W. nothing
2			in sight, water employed in small
4			jobs. All well on board
6			Var 1 pt West Lat 15° 20' S
8			2 Mo. Out
10			Remarks, September 27, 1833, Friday
12			These 24 hours commence with strong
2			trade winds, all sail set on a wind
4			took in topgallantails at 8 PM
6			Middle part squally, took 1 reef
8			in main topgall
10			Latter part more moderate and
12			flying clouds set all sail, nothing
2			in sight. All well on board
4			water employed in small jobs
6			Var 1 pt W Lat 14° 02' S
8			2 Mo. 1 day out
10			Remarks, September 28, 1833, Saturday
12			These 24 hours commence with strong
2			winds from S.E. and squally
4			5 P.M. took in topgallantails
6			Middle part squally, some rain
8			Latter part strong breeze and
10			cloudy, winds S.E. steering S.W.
12			11 A.M. single reef'd the topgall
2			water employed in small jobs
4			Var 1 pt W No Obi to depend on
6			2 Mo. 2 days out