

Ship	Shrocks Log	Boat	Clement	Thimmon
2	8	Remarks on board April the 18-1854	Monday these 24 hours commences with strong trades with squalls of rain
4	7		the middle part strong leads with squalls of rain
6	7		the latter part strong leads and squalls the watch employed mending sails
8	7
10	7
12	7
2	8	Remarks on board April the 18-1854	Friday these 24 hours commences with strong trades and squalls
4	8		the middle part fine
6	8		the latter part strong leads and a heavy swell made
8	8		the latter part strong leads and a heavy swell made
10	8		the latter part strong leads and a heavy swell made
12	8		the latter part strong leads and a heavy swell made
2	9	Remarks on board April the 19-1854	Saturday these 24 hours commences with fine trades and pleasant weather
4	9		the middle part fine beads and cloudy weather
6	9		the latter part strong beads and fine weather the watch employed in setting up rigging
8	9
10	9
12	9
2	10	Remarks on board April 20-1854	Sunday these 24 hours commences with fine trades and pleasant weather
4	10		the middle part fine beads and pleasant weather
6	10		the latter part fine trades and pleasant weather the watch employed on deck
8	10
10	10
12	10

Ship	Shrocks Log	Boat	Clement	Thimmon
2	8	Remarks on board April the 21-1854	Monday these 24 hours commences with fine beads and pleasant weather
4	6		at 7 o'clock took steering sails and beared the yards by the shallop beads and stored 11 by 8 in account of being in the latitude of 36 S. Hesper at 9 o'clock calculated that we were 20 miles to South of it
6	6		the middle part fine beads and pleasant weather
8	6		the latter part fine beads at 7 o'clock made 30 beads having 4 1/2 of 8 distance 12
10	6		Set in by Obs 15-55
12	6		Set 2 p.m. 11
2	8	Remarks on board April the 22-1854	Tuesday these 24 hours commences with pleasant trades and fine weather
4	8		at 2 o'clock the Hesper bore 58 S. 65 miles
6	8		the middle part fine beads and pleasant weather
8	8		the latter part mardae wind and pleasant weather
10	8		the watch employed in setting rigging the ends this day
12	8		Set in by Obs 15-55
2	9	Remarks on board April the 23-1854	Wednesday these 24 hours commences with moderate trades and pleasant weather
4	9		the middle part pleasant weather and fine beads
6	9		the latter moderate trades and pleasant weather finbacks on deck
8	9		the watch employed in setting rigging
10	9		Set in by Obs 15-55
12	9		Set 2 p.m. 11
2	10	Remarks on board April 24-1854	Thursday these 24 hours commences with light trades and pleasant weather
4	10		the middle part strong beads and pleasant weather
6	10		the latter part fine trades and pleasant weather the watch employed in setting rigging
8	10		Set in by Obs 11-45
10	10		Set 1.42 11
12	10			