

Journal from New Zealand Toward

Wednesday 14th July 1841-

Light air from the E and fair weather
Sailing NW saw a schooner - King 847

Lat 36° 25' 54" Long 150° 24' 27"

Thursday 15th July 1841-

Light air from E to NE Steady NW 7 NW 10

Saw a number of Sail Boats 6 PM

Lat 36° 27' 00" Long 151° 52' 17"

Friday 16th July

(11th These 24 hours very light airs and calm)

and very warm Steady NW 7 with light air from NW & E. one sail in sight at noon Painted Boat Lat 37° 28' Long 151° 45' 27"

Saturday 17th July

These 24 hours is attended with Calm and very warm and pleasant a sail in sight at noon Lat 37° 28' Long 151° 45' 27"

Sunday 18th July 1841

These 24 hours is attended with Calm and light squally heading NW 7 Saw a number of sail Lat 37° 28' Long 151° 45' 27"

Monday 21st July 1841-

These 24 hours very light air and Calm and squally principally from W to SW heading

NW 7 Lat 37° 28' Long 151° 45' 27"

Tuesday 22nd

Little breeze from the W to SW heading NW 7

middle and bottom part same squally

Lat 37° 30' 29" Long 151° 20' 27"

Wednesday 23rd July

(11th These 24 hours fresh windy from NW 7

SW 7 NW 7 and NW 7 bottom part very squally

Lat 37° 33' 23" Long 151° 12' 27"

Mar Bessy

(11th 7th

15th 7th

01- 7th

7th

Adelaide Howland

Betsy Brush

Carrie Daggett

Deborah 7th

John Lambert

Reuben Smith

Lorenzo Smith

7th

7th

Nathan Brunscomb

John Sherry

John Sherry

Charles Brown

David Barrows

Edward Harding

Francis Leggett

George T. Lee

Thuram Lambert

Isabell Lane

Voluntine Boodle

William Ann