

July 9th Begins with cloudy weather and Lat. brisk trade, heading to S. Easterly 2 sails in sight, shortened sail middle & latter ditto &c No obs.

Sunday 10th Cloudy to moderate heading N.E. shortened sail to middle & latter ditto sighted nothing
Lat. 19.12. Long = 91.21

Monday 11th Comes with cloudy weather & moderate heading S.E. by S. at sun set shortened sail the latter the same tacked ship to S.N.E. &c
Lat. 19.13. Long = 91.23

Tuesday 12th Fine with little squalls heading to S.N.E. at sun set shortened sail the latter ditto &c to sails in sight
Lat. 19.05. Long = 90.58

Wednesday 13th First part fine & warmed with Niger heading S, shortened sail the latter a gale & squally &c Lat. 19.15.

Thursday 14th Comes with a gale heading to N.E. the latter ditto heading S. saw 2 sails.
Lat. 18.50.

The Lord speed the time and please give us some few whales, and a good price for the oil when we arrive at home

Friday 15th Begins with squally weather and a gale, heading S. wear ship to N.E. at 6 p.m. and rounded with a gale
Lat. 18.23

Saturday 16th Comes with a gale from S.E. heading N.E. under close reefed &c sails the latter moderating &c and so rounded heading S.
Lat. 18.57. Long = 91.59

Sunday 17th Begins with ruff trade, heading S. at sun down wear ship to N.E. middle & latter ditto wear ship to
Lat. 18.43. Long = 91.57.

Monday 18th Comes with a gale heading South middle & latter ditto &c 3 sails in sight.
Lat. 18.31 Long = 92.07

Tuesday 19th Comes with squally and rugged crissing, middle & latter ditto mo-derating one sail in sight &c
Lat. 18.28. Long = 92.00

Wednesday 20th First part fine & brisk trade no whales, one sail in sight, the latter ditto &c beating
Lat. 18.28 Long = 91.47.

Thursday 21th First part fine &c heading to S.N.E. at sun set shortened sail
Lat. 19.02.