

Bark Chandler Rice, lying to anchor at St Stevens Ledge

Remarks on Board Sunday September 30th Commenced with light winds and pleasant weather lying at St Stevens Ledge, taking in cargo middle part rainy latter part strong winds from N.W. with clear weather
So Ends

Remarks on Board Sunday December 1st 1862 Commenced with light winds from S.W. with clear weather middle part the same latter part wind N.E. with thick snow storm employed in taking in cargo and clearing the cables So Ends

Remarks on Board Tuesday December 2nd Commenced with light winds from S.E. with thick snow. employed in taking in cargo middle part stormy latter part strong winds from N.W. with clear cold weather employed in taking in cargo and piling blocks and strops So Ends

Taking in a cargo of Deeds for Scotland in 1862

Remarks on Board Wednesday December 3rd

Commenced with strong winds from N.W. with clear cold weather middle part the same latter part calm and cold employed in taking in cargo and piling blocks and strops
So Ends

Remarks on Board Thursday December 4th Commenced with light winds from N.W. with clear cold weather employed in taking in cargo middle part the same latter part part strong winds and cold weather employed in taking in cargo So Ends

Remarks on Board Friday December 5th

Commenced with strong winds and overcast weather middle and latter parts the same employed in taking in cargo
So Ends