

Friday Nov 26 No ob Comes with squally weather wind S rough smoky weather at sun set moderate down middle part must calen at 6 A.M. raised 7 Whales soon after lower for them. L.B. struck S.B. struck a then a loose Whale came up under the bow and rode him over 11th to his line and got the Whale end with plenty rain got one Whale a long side.

Saturday Nov 27th No ob Comes with heavy rain at one end got the other Whale along side and flushed weather thick with heavy rain middle part rain with calm at day light got cutting gear up started cutting ends with squally and strong wind from South got one Whale in so ends

Sunday Nov 28 No ob Comes with strong breeze with squally got the most the other Whale body in view On baron gave out broke the stage every thing a drift let both heads go broke all the spades and let up got the try sail on and got a heading East S.P. middle part stop rain crew employed running blower up and mending vessel rolling bad at day light started the fivers latter part heavy swell running and rain squally so ends

Monday Nov 29 Lat 18:22 Long 36:21 Comes with squally weather wind East at 6 P.M. strong breeze rough crew running blower and boiling sea as per hand m going South and short sail middle part squally and rain latter part blowing very rough losing half of the oil blower running bad and can not keep rolling on the pots so ends with bad day

Tuesday Nov 30th Lat 17:54 Long 36:14 Comes with little better weather but very rough sea middle part moderate down finish boiling at eleven P.M. latter part stop down the oil repair the cutting stage
 so ends

Wednesday Dec 1st Lat 17:56 Comes with calm heavy swell running ship rolling like a water tub finish repairing the stage and the barrow middle and latter part calm crew employed repairing the main sail saw a fin back so ends

Thursday Dec 2nd Lat 17:48 Long 35:57 Comes with pleasant weather wind N.E. crew employed repairing the mainsail at 6 P.M. bent the mainsail at sun set took to under short sail latter part thunder light ning and rain vessel rolling bad so ends

Friday Dec 3rd No Ob Comes with heavy rain thunder lightning heavy squall from South rain after calm heavy swell running vessel rolling bad no port for any one middle part weather the same latter part half the pump out to clear the Whale all shoked up so ends

Saturday Dec 4th Lat 18:31 Comes with rainy weather and squally middle and latter part plenty rain so ends