

September 24 this day begins with fair weather. Towner still to anchor in Fayall men in play in small Jobs as to ship duty so ends this day

September 25- this day begins with fair weather Towner still in Fayall men in play in small Jobs as to ship duty so ends this day

September 26 this day Towner still in Fayall men in play in discharging oil and other Jobs as to ship duty so ends this day

September 27 this day begins with fair weather Towner still to anchor in Fayall men in play in small Jobs as to ship duty so ends this day

September 28 this day begins with fair weather Towner still in Fayall to anchor men in play in small Jobs as to ship duty so ends this day

September 29 this day begins with fair weather Towner still to anchor in Fayall men in play in small Jobs as to ship duty so ends this day
standing down and getting ready for sea and taking water and so on so ends this day

September 30 this day begins with fair weather Towner still in Fayall men in play in making water and stowing so ends this day

October the first 1960 Towner still in Fayall to anchor in play in stowing and taking water send down main topmast so ends this day

Sept October second Sunday this day begins with fair weather Towner still in Fayall on watch on shore so ends this day

October 3 this day begins with fair weather Towner still to anchor in Fayall in play in stowing and taking water so ends this day

October 4 this day begins with fair weather Towner still in Fayall to anchor men in play in small Jobs as to ship duty so ends this day

October 5 this day begins with fair weather in play in stowing and taking water and small Jobs as to ship duty so ends this day

October 6 Towner still in Fayall men in play in ship duty finish stowing and ready for sea so ends this day