

Janol Log Books

September 27 ¹⁹¹² ^{Thy} the day Commenced with light winds from overboard Came out from Foul So Remend the day So end

Saturday 28

the day with winds from west at 2 p.m. Rai's Seal small whals and Dred 3 bunt west and L.B. got fast and kill them bring long suit heat Reamend over night at 12 at night breeze gal winds and heat whals go So end

Sunday 29

still blowing gal winds vessel under short sail saw 3 mast schooner heading to South So end

Monday 30

the day with lather better weather and squally made sails streaming S by W So end lat 36.70 long 26.34

Thursday October 1 1912

the day with fine weather winds from North vessel under all sails lat 34.30 long 26.40

Wednesday 2

the day with light winds from overboard vessel under all sails saw whaling Barbs So end lat 32.57 long 26.28