

21 12	4 49 44	70 46
89 45	6 56
18 36	16 42 78
19 08	6 53 00	7 25 7	70 46
37 44	11 47 48	0 6 60	30
	6 19	7 9 37	71 16
	11 40 29		89 48
	12 00 00		18 32
	19 31		19 08
			37 40

18 54
90 00
71 06	10 05 19	23 80	101 70	4 57 32
	6 56	9	024 60	6 19
	9 38 17	23 39	60 70 9	4 03 51
	8 03 34	37 42	82 9 35
	4 34 23	70 86	562 79
		132 17
		66 09
	73 35 45	23 39
		42 29

71 23	8 18 15	45 34	099 95	3 05 07
89 45	6 57	11	024 07	6 19
18 23	3 08 18	43 43	348 24	3 11 26
18 34	3 11 26	37 24	716 48
37 29	4 56 52	71 06	188 69
		154 13
		77 07
	74 13	45 45
		31 22

Wed July 29 1914
 Stowed down
 20 bbls of oil
 Blowing a moderate gale of wind from the E Bar 29 70

8 11 15
 2 11 15
 1 11 15
 1 11 15
 1 11 15
 1 11 15

71 23	5 01 42	71	5 21 33	71 18
89 45	6 58		6 58	12
18 25	4 54 44		5 14 35	6.860
18 40	4 56 00		4 56 00	0 6 75
37 03	11 58 44	6.836	18 33	7.535
	6 17	0 6 28	6 17
	11 81 27	6.211	12 18
	12 00 00
	6.33

9 10 23	34 17	09265	4 01 39	4.02
	6 58	11	0 23 34	6 17
4 03 23	34 28	5 03 26	4 07 56
4 07 56	37 00	7 58 96
4 55 29	71 23	70 331
	142 57

Thursday July 30
 Four Whalers in sight but not one whale. Spoke the Scher Wal Graber. Moderate NE breeze & squally. Saw the coasting Scher Mark Pemberton with no mainsail set and the jib gone. Bar at 4 PM 29.93. Vessel heaving to much for comfort. I went down in the run yesterday and found plenty of water coming in through the stern.