

Deck & Accommodation of Capt Horn 1865

...with... from...
...wind...
...strong and...
...making...
...of snow...
...at daylight...
...with...
...split the fore...
...topgallant...
...put the ship under...
...topgallant & courses

Lat Oct 57 12 N
Long Oct 42 11 W

Thursday March 9th

Strong breezes & thick rainy weather
...from N to NW... steering by
...to the N.E. until 3 P.M.
...steered N by E & by compass
...made some sail... weather more moderate
...middle part squally...
...from the South...
...an old fore topgallant sail
...but... ones

Lat Oct 55 34 South
Long Oct 41 57 West

Friday March 10th

Strong breeze from the South...
...steering N by NW...
...all sail set...
...advantage Mid & Lutter parts
...much the same...
...course NNW...
...crew variously employed...
...duty knotting yarns &c

Lat Oct 54 30 South
Long Oct 57 57 West

Bark Tamerlane, Pacific Atlantic 1865

Saturday March 11th

...with...
...N by E...
...employed with...
...Middle & Lutter parts...
...Moderate...
...Honolulu...
...Wipe with...
...Watch employed...
...repairing...
...Lat 53 00 North
...Long 56 50 West

Lat 53 00 North
Long 56 50 West

Sunday March 12th

Moderate breezes from South...
...N by E...
...set...
...Honolulu in sight...
...saw...
...through the...
...and some hail...
...at daylight saw a sail...
...Eastward

Lat 50 38 South
Long 50 30 West

Monday March 13th

Strong breeze from the South...
...steering N by NW...
...all sail set...
...advantage Mid & Lutter parts
...much the same...
...course NNW...
...crew variously employed...
...duty knotting yarns &c

Lat Oct 54 18 South
Long Oct 55 00 West